4641. Squire Henry Carpenter

E-mail from Beverly Davis Valcovic received June 3ed, 2001 provided the following information, a portion of which was taken from a copy of his Civil War records that are in her possession

In 1850 Squire Henry Carpenter (1844-1922) lived in Susquehanna Co., PA. According to Civil War records, did not know the township or post office. In 1860, Henry lived with his parents in Freedom Township IL (LaSalle Co.) The post office address was Ottawa IL. (9 miles north) Henry was discharged after about a year of service in the "War of the Rebellion" because of a wound to his right shoulder which shattered the bone and caused the right arm to be almost entirely useless. He was wounded on 15 October 1864 at Resaca GA. He was a farmer by profession.

He is described as being 5' 4 1/2" with hazel eyes, a dark complexion and brown hair.

His wife (2nd wife--Martha Elizabeth Putnam [Lizzie]) filed for his pension after his death and found herself so involved in red tape (including letters from a Nebraska Representative and the Nebraska senator at the time on her behalf) that she died before she received it. Lots of family data and some of interest only to immediate family. One of the letters in the file was from a local Doctor certifying that Sq. Henry was dead--the same doctor delivered my father.

Again, thanks!

He was an exemplary citizen, a loving and devoted husband and father, and a friend to everybody.
Squire Henry Carpenter was born at Luzerne, Luzerne Co, Pa., January 9, 1844 and died February 25, 1922 at his home in Hildreth, Nebraska making him 78 years, 1 month and 16 days old. His wife and one daughter preceded him to the Great Beyond. His wife Lucretia died November 11, 1892 and daughter Anna departed December 11, 1892. On May 16, 1894, he was married to Martha Elizabeth Davis, and to this union one son was born. He leaves to mourn his death his invalid wife, Martha Elizabeth and ? children: William G. Carpenter of Clay Center; Elvaro Carpenter, of Cambridge; Mrs. Ernest Anderson, of Hildreth; Mrs. Oscar Davis of Wauneta; Mrs. Bert Anderson, of Hildreth. Four step-children also survive him: O. W. Davis of Wauneta; Mrs. Tom Carpenter of Cambridge; Mrs. Frank York and Mrs. Arthur Carpenter of Hildreth; nineteen own grandchildren, eleven step-grandchildren and one great grandson.

Mr. Carpenter joined the M.E. Church, December 1911, of which he was a member at the time of his death. Short funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the home because the sorrowing invalid wife was unable to leave the house, after which services were held in the Congregational Church in charge of Rev. M. S. Satchell of Madrid, assisted by Rev. D. A. Savage. The local Masonic Lodge, of which the deceased was a charter member, was in charge and about fifty were present, some coming from Upland, Wilcox, Franklin and other points. The interior of the church building had been decorated with the flag he loved so well and the casket was covered with beautiful floral offerings. The day was cold and disagreeable but the people turned out by hundreds to pay their last tribute of respect, the church being filled to overflowing. Interment was made in the Garden Plains Cemetery northeast of Hildreth beside loved ones who had gone before, the beautiful and impressive burial ceremony of the Masonic order being used at the grave.

Her notes:
Nettie Guiltner is buried in Eldridgeville, she was last of his wives, first one had son (Frederick) who lived in Michigan, second marriage, had my father Ira and Uncle Earl. Carpenter grandparents lived in Nebraska, came back to Illinois in a covered wagon, Grandfather George W. Carpenter died after their return, Nettie climbed on the wagon to get wood, slipped off and was an invalid the rest of her life, but she outlived my father. Uncle Earl used to go twice, once as himself, once as my dad when she was in nursing home each week. Life so different then.

10619. Theron Wayne "Theron" Judd

Theron died in a plane crash. Per the article in the newspaper "In Geneva, NY. Airman Basic Kenneth W. Spencer, a trainee at Sampson Air Force Base, said the passengers were his parents and fiance. He said the plane, which left for Wayne Indiana at about 10 am October 2, 1954 had been scheduled to land at the scenic Erie Park, a small field near the Geneva airport. Friends of the Spencers here said that they had talked of taking a regularly scheduled commercial flight to visit their son, but evidently changed their minds and chartered the Rev. Mr. Judds plane for the trip."
The Journal - Gazette also report that the Officials at Baer Field reported the plane landed at Erie, Pa., shortly after noon October 2 1954 for refueling. A call from the Erie Dispatch to the Journal-Gazette last night indicated that Judd for a time considered waiting for the low overcast and intermittent mists before he continued the trip, but that he decided about 12:30 pm to complete the last lef of the journey to Geneva.
C. L. McMillen, manager of the Erie Aviation Corp., and a mechanic, Earl Barion, Checked the Plane's propellor governor on Judd's complaint the mechanism had not been operating smoothly, but could find nothing wrong. Mcmillen said he had noted some splashes of oil on the craft's windshield and had wiped them off, but that Judd gave no indication he had been having any trouble with the engine.
CAA officials said the plane, a four-place Stinson Voyager, plunged into a farmer's field about 300 feet from the Pennsylvania Railroad right of way. Eric County Sheriff's deputies said the plane hit the earth with "tremendous impact, scattering wreckage and parts of bodies over a wide area." William A. Monin, 16, an eyewitness, said he saw the plane "come down low out of the fog. It went back up again and must have done a loop. It came back down." A spokesman for the CAA said the poor weather conditions would be a serious obstacle for a plane not equipped with adequate flight instruments. Officials said the ceiling at the Buffalo Airport at the time of the crash was about 600 feed mist, smoke and fog they said, had cut visibility down to about four miles.
Miss Myers, member of the "Twirlers." a baton group at north side high school, was the daughter of Mr and Mrs Hubert E. Myers. Her father is an interviewer in the personnel department at the General Electric Co. Here. She was a member of the Forest Park Methodist Church, Miss Myers body will be brought to the D. O. E-MAIL: Re: Hopkins Carpenter Date: Thu, 28 Dec 2000

John,
This is some data from the past, which I worked on in 1983-1984 with Louise Carpenter Licklider [LCL], a descendant of this line through Hopkins Carpenter. Just recently, I contacted a descendant of the Charles Carpenter branch who was researching his line, and was able to hook him up with this research. I have not been able to contact Louise. Her book is in the Library of Congress so I was able to consult it to make sure my notes were correct. I believe Louise may not be active in research anymore. She would be in her 80s now. Her husband died in 1990. He was the famous computer scientist J. C. R. Licklider who was one of the people who really did invent the Internet. This is the "bare bones" of the line and if the descendant through Charles has any luck he may be able to add to it.

This is a very atypical migration pattern for a New England line, and a good example of what is possible when dealing with adventurous individuals descended from that line.

E-MAIL: From: "dean carpenter"
Iowa Records show Jesse moved west to Parke Co., Indiana. I have some gaps in records here but the United States Government deeded some land to John Carpenter in Iowa in 1831and to Jesse oin the same quarter section in 1836. The handwritten Abstract shows several property swaps involving family members. It shows that John was deceased in 1867 and Alsa Farr being the widow of John Carpenter. It shows that Jessee sold his land to Elisa Carpenter in 1841. To skip ahead; Elhanan moved to Dawes Co. Nebraska in 1885.

E-MAIL: Wed, 14 Jun 2000 From: LGroup2220@aol.com
"Do you have information on Knight Carpenter's son Jesse? I have a Jesse Knight Carpenter born abt 1797 (based on one census) in VT. He moved to Parke Co., IN, in the 1830's along with a William Carpenter whose age and proximity make him appear to be Jesse's brother."
To Warren and others.....
My Carpenter file does not have any further information on Jesse Carpenter, son of Knight Carpenter. Wes Skinner did much of the research on our family. Here is the address to look at his work: http://worldconnect.genealogy.rootsweb.com/cgi-bin/igm.cgi?op=GET&db=wskinner&id=I6323
In some notes I have from Wes it says that it appeared that Knight Carpenter moved to Chester Vermont in the 1780's. I'm sorry that I have no more information on these two brothers - William and Jesse. I would like to have what information you have if you think these are our boys. Maybe someone else on this list can help us out here. Penny

Dear John,
I am rather new at genealogical research, and I have come across your name several times in looking at message boards, etc. I am hoping you can help me.

My great grandfather was Alfred Madison Carpenter. I have info that he married Maria Schoonover in Benton Co. Iowa in 1871, and that my grandfather was born there in 1874.
According to family story, they came to Kansas in a covered wagon when my grandfather was only a few years old.

Do you happen to have any information on who are the parents of Alfred Madison Carpenter might be? I am stuck at this particular point in my research and hope you can point me in the right direction. Any help you have to offer will be greatly appreciated.

Thank you,
Bonnie Pugh Kershaw

I came across your email recently and would like more information on the research you have done on the Knight Carpenter line. What documentation do you have placing Alfred Madison Carpenter as Edwin Carpenter's son? I have family information that Alfred was the last of 11 children and his oldest sister's name was Roxeyann. She was born in 1812 and married Asa (Asahel Luther). In your research, I don't see anything that matches any of these details and wonder if you have info.
Thanks for your assistance.

E-MAIL: From: "dean carpenter"
Elhannan moved his family to Dawes County in 1895 and they all married into the farm life. Some had children, not all of them. Gradually they all passed away or moved west for a better living. Farm life was not a life for most who tried it in western Nebraska it was a barely existing. My parents lived in Chadron until world war11 and then moved to California for better living. I left for 44 years for the same reason but love this country and knew I would return to retire here.

Elhanan Winchester Carpenter
Birth: Apr. 13, 1833
Chenango County
New York, USA
Death: Sep. 20, 1909
Dawes County
Nebraska, USA
Elhanan was the son of Jesse Knight Carpenter and Mary 'Polly' Beckwith both of Vermont. When he was still a young boy, his parents moved to Parke County, Indiana and in about 1815 they moved to Illinois, then on to Iowa.
Elhanan married Charlotte Bradford Leighton, daughter of Isaac Leighton and Permelia Lancaster in 1856. According to the U.S. census [1856, 1860, 1870, & 1885] they lived in Lime Creek Township, Washington County, Iowa. His parents lived with them for a time.
Elhanan enlisted on Sep. 23, 1861 as a Private in Company F, 11th Iowa Infantry, mustered Oct. 8, 1861. He saw service in the Army of the Cumberland, at the Siege of Vicksburg and participated in 21 battles. It is said that at the Battle of Shiloh, he had three balls put through his hat at different places inside of 15 minutes. He was held prisoner at Andersonville for 9 months, 18 days. He received his discharge at Davenport, Iowa in 1865. [Source: Compendium of History, Reminiscence & Biography of Western Nebraska, Fold3 database, Ancestry]
The 1900 Federal census finds Elhanan and Charlotte in Dry Creek, Dawes County, Nebraska. Also noted in that census, they report that Charlotte bore 8 children, 5 of whom were living. Other records seem to show at least 9 children.

The children: Mariam M. [1857]; Martha M. [1859]; Muratte [1860]; Mary P. [1861-1897]; Stephen Winchester [1864]; Edwin Francis [1867]; Annettie [1869-1885]; Daniel W. [1872-1874]; Della E. [1874].
Cemetery records show that within the same plot with Elhanan and Charlotte, there are two females: daughter Mary P. and a Lois Carpenter. No records could be found to identify Lois as a daughter.
Two children, Annettie and Daniel, are buried in Wassonville Cemetery in Washington County, Iowa.

Charlotte was the first child born to Isaac Leighton and Permelia Lancaster. She was born in Maine, lived in Cattaraugus Co., New York and then arrived in Iowa with her parents and 2 siblings when she was not yet 10 years old.
She married Elhanan W. Carpenter [son of Jesse Knight Carpenter and Mary Polly Beckwith] on June 8, 1856. The couple is shown in the 1856 Iowa census and then again in the 1860 Federal Census [Lime Creek Twp], he as 24, she as 23 with two daughters, 3 and 1.
In the 1870 Federal census, Lime Creek Twp., shows 4 more children and [presumably] the addition of Elhanan's parents, Jesse K, [b. 1794, Vermont] and Mary [b 1800, Vermont] living with them.
The 1880 Federal census shows them with 6 children and only Jesse, Elhanan's father is living with them.
The 1900 Federal census finds Elhanan and Charlotte in Dry Creek, Dawes County, Nebraska. Also noted in that census, they report that Charlotte bore 8 children, 5 of whom were living. Other records seem to show at least 9 children.

John Spencer Carpenter is often, and erroneously, reported to be John "Rillis" Spencer Carpenter.
The son of Dudley Carpenter found in the 1880 Grant Twp., Riley County, Kansas census is Rillis S. Carpenter, not John Spencer Carpenter; these brothers, Sherman Rillis and John Spencer, are two different men. John Spencer has not been found in the 1880 census, to date.

"I have information on James' father, my GGGrandfather. His name is Samuel W. Carpenter. According to the 1870 Census for Lenawee Co. Michigan, he was born in Ohio in 1830. He married Sarah Fisher McLaughlin on 18 April 1857, Richmond Twp. Huron Co. Ohio. They had six (6) children, Rose, Mary, James, Della, Amy, and Lucy. Their divorce was finalized on 13 Feb, 1875. He had custody of all the children and returned to Ohio. No information after that time. I hope this helps. This is all I have on Samuel."

Hi John;
I need your help unknotting the information I have to complete my line and update the GEDCOM. From your CECD I have the line coming down from William1 to Caleb Carpenter was married to Rhoda Dyer, b. 1774, E. Bridgewater MA, d. before 1825. I was contacted by a member of the Dyer family and directed to their family web page at: http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~dyer/william_of_sheepscot/D5.htm#c6824 They show her as dying between 1819 and 1824 in Java, Wyoming, NY and buried date unknown in the Pioneer Cemetery, Wyoming, NY, but more importantly they list the children and dates of birth for Caleb and Rhoda. Their fourth child was Daniel D. Carpenter b. 25 Jul 1808. They also show Daniel as being married to Amy (nee?) Carpenter. They show them as married in1828 in Arcade, Wyoming, NY after the birth of their first son in 1827, that son being Lester J. Carpenter b. 11 Jan 1827. He and Amy had eight children between 1827 and 1841. Amy died some time before 19 Sep 1842 when Daniel was married to Malvina Summerlin, on 19 Sep 1842. They had three children. Elizabeth, b.24 Jan 1844, Alonzo Curtis, b.7 Oct 1845, and Catherine Ursula (Sulie) b.1850. This is where it starts getting confusing. Caleb was married a second time after the death of Rhoda to Rebecca Jane Green in 1825. They had three children, Charles D. Carpenter b.14 Feb 1825, Amasa Green Carpenter, b.6 Apr 1828, in Belleville, OH and Rebecca Jane Carpenter, b.16 Sep 1831 also in Belleville, OH. Everything presented to this point brings me to the place where I have been unwilling to make the final leap to connect my line formally. Okay here we go. In the 1850 Census of Venice Twp., Seneca County, Ohio (attached is Amasa Green Carpenter, age 23, his wife Sarah, age 25, Daniel, age 42 and wife Malvina age 33, along with their children including Samuel age 15, Lester, age either 23 or 28 (hard to tell) and his wife Betsy age 30, and Chaptinler Carpenter age 25 with his wife Emiline age 23. According to Gene Z. Chaptinler Carpenter is Charles D. In the 1860 Census from Richmond Twp, Huron County, Ohio the following individuals are all on the same page together. I failed to mention that all the people on the 1850 Census were also all on the same page. Amasa G. Carpenter, age 33, his wife Sarah, age 34. These ages match as they should. Daniel died in 1851 so he is not here. However Samuel is with an age of 30, five years older than he should be. Lester has an age of 25 which is several years off and Betsy is 23, again seven years younger. Charles (Chaptinler) is still residing in Venice Twp, Seneca Co. with his wife Emiline, age 33 and his Mother Rebecca age 68. Although the counties they live in are different from census to census, looking at a map shows that not only are the counties side by side, but the townships are also adjacent to one another in the counties so they only would have had to move a mile or two to account for the change. I feel confident that these are the same family groups with my direct and proven line through Samuel Wilson Carpenter, son of Daniel D. Carpenter. If you feel that I am on the right track I will go ahead and make my final formal linkage and submit my GEDCOM to you for inclusion in the CECD and FamilyTreeDNA. I look forward to hearing from you at your convenience. Thank you in advance for any input, opinions, or suggestions. I hope you and your family have had a Merry Christmas and I hope for you and yours a most prosperous, healthy, and Very Happy New Year.

Sincere best regards Cousin
Dennis L. Carpenter

Yes my grandpa is Clyde Dean Carpenter. 3/6/1926
Still alive but not for much longer. His health is really bad.
We tested with living dna (atDNA). And we are still waiting for my brothers results to come in.
I uploaded his raw dna to gedmatch kit Z988542
But it says it's still in process it.

... My question now is, do you have any information on a Rolla Carpenter (b Abt. 1808 in New York) that was a Baptist Clergyman. He and his family showed up in the Abington Twp, Luzern County, PA 1850 census and other information I received noted he purchased a store in Carpenter Town, north of Bailey Hollow (now the town of Dalton).

Hi John:
As you requested, I have looked closely at my data and also did some additional research to try and understand the puzzle on Rev. Rolla Carpenter lineage. The file you provided does in fact state, under his fathers page, that he is the son of Stephen, grandson of William. I agree with you that the data does not seem to match known dates. It is my opinion that the note was added to his father's file as a misinterpretation of data in his grandfather's file addressing the Scranton Republican record. This note states " This record was published soon after the death of Stephen Carpenter the grandson of this William Carpenter. The information was supplied by the younger brother of Stephen named Rev. Rolla Carpenter". This again may not be true it, may in fact, could have been provided by Stephen's son (not proven) Rolla Carpenter (listed in the 1850 United States Census of Thomson Township, Susquehanna County, PA) and not the reverend.
I am not sure where the provider information was obtained and assume it appeared in the News article published 26 January 1882. A copy of this article may in fact resolve the puzzle if it can be located, possibly from the person who provide you the file or a member of the Carpenter forum. I have made some inquiries about the article and would really like to see it.
I have also confirmed that Rev. Rolla Carpenter is in fact related to the individuals buried the Carpenter Cemetery in Scott Township, near interstate Highway 81. Rolla and Joseph Carpenter are 3ed cousins and have Silas Carpenter (b. 1650) as their 2nd Grate grandfather.
I have developed my files based on my current opinion noted above and the assumption on Rolla and William as the sons of Stephen. This file is attached a Gedcom for your use.

I am doing some genealogical research regarding Carpenter Town (site now located in Lackawanna State Park north of Dalton Pennsylvania) and have found that a Rev. Rolla Carpenter lived in this town around 1850. He contributed information to the Scranton Republican news paper regarding his family that was published on January 26th, 1882.

I would like to know if anyone might have a copy of this article. From what I understand it begins with William Carpenter of Providence and continues through several generations, giving information about his branch of the family that would otherwise be unobtainable. I would really appreciate it if anyone could send me a copy or transcription of this article. Thanks.

North Abington Township in Luzerne County (now Lackawanna County) came in 1812, with the Arrival of Asa Knight. Following these early settlers were Asa's son Archibald Knight, Daniel Long, Ira Lewis, Peter Cole, John Lewin, Leonard Hopfer, John Kennedy, Alfred Frisk William Foster and members of the Carpenter family (Most of these were from Rhode Island and New York). The settlements along the old Route 407 in North Abington Township became known as Carpenter Town named for the Latter Family.
It is believed that the Knight Cemetery was located on Asa Knight's land and was used by these residents of Carpenter Town as well as those that lived in Wallsville. The attached is a record for this cemetery and the listed Carpenters are descendents of William of Providence and are also related to the individuals buried in the Carpenter Cemetery in Scott Township, Also attached.

John,
Using your cd's and trying to find more information on James Carpenter-67502 who was born in Fulton County, NY September 21, 1801 and married Nancy Coe in 1823.

Is there more information about this family? I think my great grandfather, who was born in 1830 in Herkimer County, NY is their child. How can I verify this?

I do not know how to use the number 67502 after James' name. Can you help me?

Thanks, Jon Carpenter

Hello again,

I've pulled out the old stack of stuff involving my genealogy research. After looking it over I've decided that I would be shocked beyond belief if somehow the lineage that I presented to you is inaccurate. I'm not saying it is complete, there are a lot of empty spaces to fill with names and dates and places. The general outline should stand up to scrutiny. I made the connection that was most difficult in 2005 when I found the parents of James Elizar Carpenter. A kind person related to our grandfather's sister Ella (Carpenter) Beal was the first to send me their names. Since that time I have had two other confirmations by other researchers who were related to our family. The final step that convinced me was receiving the estate records for James Carpenter of Hocking County, Ohio. James Carpenter died 1865.

Here is my submission to the Carpenter Genealogy Forum in 2005:

Have census information about two brothers and their families who moved from Western N.Y. to Licking County, Ohio in the 1850's. Thomas (b. 1805) and Laura Carpenter (Thomas' first wife died in 1845 and was named Elizabeth), with children Thomas N. (b. circa 1838), George A. (b. circa 1844), Charles L. (b. circa 1848), and Elizabeth (b. circa 1850).Ezekiel B. Carpenter (b. circa 1817) and wife Luceba with children David M. Carpenter (b. circa 1844) and Orpha J. (b. circa 1849)These brothers also had an older brother James Carpenter (b. circa 1801) who moved to Hocking County, Ohio in 1842 with his wife Nancy and their children William D. (b.circa 1824), Mercy L. (b.circa 1827) James Elizar (b. Jan 18, 1830), twin sister Louisa Eliza (b. Jan 18, 1830), Elizabeth, (b. circa 1832), Hulda (b. circa 1836), Sarah (b.circa 1839), Oscar (b. circa 1841), Nelson (b. 1843 in Ohio), and Phebe (b. circa 1847 in Ohio)I have a little information on all these families and estate records for James who died in 1865 in Ward Township, Hocking County, Ohio. I also have much information on his son James Elizar Carpenter who moved to Illinois and then to Kansas.

That's what I wrote in 2005. Since then I have had minor new discoveries. I think I'm ready to participate in the DNA project in order to share the information that I have gleaned and to broaden (hopefully) the family tree.

Our Uncle Lewis had a son and a grandson with his name. Our grandfather had the same name. I am in contact with Lewis Wade Carpenter the fourth. He lives in Kansas and is a friend of mine on Facebook. I've sent him pictures of his grandfather and a lot of information that he didn't have. I'll bet our "branch" of the Carpenter family just since James Elizar Carpenter is huge in number. It would be fun to locate them and share information.

Subject: Hello, from New Mexico
I just spent a weekend with a new found family member from Nebraska. Sherry Phillips, is from Azalia Elvira White's branch. Azalia Elvira White (1847 - 1924) is the first born child of Hiram William White (1823 - 1859) and Lucretia Venora Carpenter (1825- 1917)
Sherry Phillips would like to get in touch with you and she would like to share her information and picturies with you. Very nice lady and so into family. With your consent I would like to give her your e-mail addresses. Better still would you kindly E-mail her at (Nebr.Homesteader@gmail.com mailto:Nebr.Homesteader@gmail.com>).
I did not have information on her branch of the family, so this is great for me. Do you have anything on her? Anyway, it is always great to meet and find new family.
Hope that all is well with you and yours. Hope to hear from you soon.
Your Cousin, Pauline

Subject: Lucretia Carpenter
Hi John,I didn't make the connection, when talking with Pauline (Polly) Skinner, that you were the cousin she was referring to. I remain grateful for all of the help you have provided to me in the past regarding the Carpenter genealogy. Polly forwarded the emails that you both have recently exchanged and I noticed, once again, the discrepancy in Lucretia's date of birth. Your notes state her birth as November 6, 1824 and mine as November 6, 1825. This past month I received (from the Morrisson-Reeves Library in Richmond, Wayne, Indiana) Lucretia's obituary. I am copying and pasting below what I now have written in my notes section for Lucretia. Let me know what you think, if you will please, John.Gratefully,Sherry Phillips1956 Haywire LaneCorvallis, Montana 59828(406) 961-5342Obituary in the Richmond newspaper, Evening Item, on May 11, 1917, p. 10, column 2. (Lucretia, according to calculations, died on a Thursday, May 10, 1917. The obituary was printed on the next day, Friday.)"LUCRETIA C. SWELT (sic)Lucretia C. Swelt, aged 91 years, died yesterday morning at her home, 435 South Thirteenth street. Funeral services will be held at her home Saturday morning at 2:30 p.m. Burial will be in Earlham cemetery. One daughter, Anna L. Holcomb, 17 grandchildren, three living in this city, Miss Maude Holcomb, Mrs. Leroy Hummer and Mrs. Hazel Ames, 62 great grandchildren, and one great, great grandchild."Note 1: A family tree on Roots Web states that Lucretia is buried in Earlham, Richmond, Indiana. Other information states that Lucretia died in Richmond, Wayne, Indiana. Earlham is and was not a town, but is a cemetery in Richmond, Wayne County, Indiana; this is where Lucretia is buried. Unfortunately, at this time, her name is registered at the cemetery as "Sweet", not "Swett". What has been reported on Ancestry is a death for a Lucretia C. Sweet. This came, apparently, from the records at Earlham Cemetery records/City Health Office in Richmond. The information, as printed on Ancestry.com follows: "Lucretia C. Sweet died on 10 May 1917 in Richmond, Indiana. She was 91 years old at the time of her death.Source Location: City Health Office, Richmond; the source of this record is the book CH-14 on page 12 within the series produced by the Indiana Works Progress Administration. The death index is form 1882 - 1920."

Lucretia Venora Carpenter (1824 - 1917)

Born in New York, USA on 6 Nov 1824 to William Carpenter > and Jemima Bently. Lucretia Venora married Eben Swett. Lucretia Venora married Hiram William White and had 4 children. She passed away on 10 May 1917 in Richland, Wayne, Indiana, USA.]
Note 2: This same Lucretia C. Sweet is listed in "Find-a-Grave with the same death date. Again, both say Sweet, not Swett. I have informed the cemetery, Find-a-Grave, and Ancestry.com of the wrong spelling of Lucretia's last name.

NAME: Lucretia Venora Carpenter Swett - NOT Sweet!]
Note 3: According to the Samuel Carpenter and His Descendants, compiled by Edward Carpenter and his son General Louis Henry Carpenter (printed for private circulation by J.B. Lippincott Company in Philadelphia in 1912) , Lucretia's birth date is November 6, 1924; the state listed is Illinois rather than New York. Note, however, that calculating her age (using an on-line age calculator) by using information from her obituary . . . shows that her birth year was 1825, not 1824. If the latter were true, her age at the time of death would have to have been 92 years.

Hiram William White

Occupation: A merchant

Excerpt from email of Sherry Phillips.
MORE:
> Lucretia married a Hiram William White (first husband) who was a handsome > fellow with sharp, almost piercing eyes, in the one photo I have of > him. Family tradition (which was finally written down and put into a > family genealogy that my great aunt and her cousins published) had that > Hiram died at age 36 falling through the ice with his team of mules/horses > and wagon on the Missouri River on December 18, 1859 outside of Muscatine, > Iowa. I carried this terrible image with me for years. Finally, doing my > own genealogy I discovered that he actually died of tuberculosis (after > being ill from the disease for 8 years) on the date above. I almost wish > he had fallen through the ice as he would have had less suffering. Anyway, > just a little family story for you.

Dear John:
Hello and Happy Thanksgiving.
I just found a connection to the Fairbanks line (a family who lived in my area of Gloversville/Johnstown). I'm hoping that you can help me find the parents and siblings of Sally Carpenter. She's got to be related to one of them from around here...maybe even my line. And believe it or not there are TWO Sally Carpenter's who married into the Fairbanks line. A connection to either would be great.
This is the information that I have so far: (SEE SECOND DESCENDANT SHEET)

Descendants of Niles H. Fairbanks
Generation No. 1

1. NILES H.3 FAIRBANKS (REMINGTON2, WILLIAM1) was born 1811 in Amsterdam, Montgomery Co., NY. He married SALLY M. CARPENTER. She was born 1816. On her daughter's death certificate it stes that Sally was from the Township of Johnstown. On another daughter's death certificate it states Bleecker, NY (which is in the Township of Johnstown). I'll keep looking for a will that might mention her.

Children of NILES FAIRBANKS and SALLY CARPENTER are:

i. MINERVA4 FAIRBANKS, b. May 11, 1842; d. February 09, 1914.

ii. JOHN FAIRBANKS, b. 1844.

iii. JANE FAIRBANKS, b. May 05, 1846; d. March 20, 1925.

E-MAIL: From: "John F. Chandler" 09/04/2001
Subject: [CARPENTER] Carpenters of South Kingstown, RI
Over the long weekend, I had the opportunity to visit Rhode Island, nominally to spend time at the beach. While there, I managed to squeeze in a trip to the Perryville Church Cemetery (historic cemetery #47 of South Kingstown), and I located the gravestones of Benjamin and Thankful Carpenter. (It wasn't easy -- the stones are of marble and considerably weathered, and Benjamin's has fallen over and is half overgrown with wild thyme.) I knew they were supposed to be there because they are listed in the RI Cemetery Database, but it's a far different thing to see them directly, and, besides, I've heard two dissenting reports that gave different dates from those in the database. At any rate, I can now confirm that the database is correct for these and some other Carpenter stones that I saw there. What I saw:
Benjamin Carpenter, died 1840 Sep 18, aged 76 his wife Thankful T. Carpenter, died 1826 Dec 27, aged 57.
[This Benjamin was probably the son of Thomas Carpenter who died in Exeter, RI, in 1815, and whose estate was administered by "Benjamin Carpenter of South Kingstown". This Thomas in turn is rumored to be the same Thomas whose birth is entered in the West Greenwich vital records as 1738 Aug 3.]
Benjamin Carpenter, [who happens to be their son, but is buried in a different area] died 1869 Jul 11, aged 62y 8m 25d his wife Sarah Carpenter, died 1875 Sep 15, aged 62y 9m 29d some offspring of this pair which I didn't write down (it was getting dark) all on one monument:
Thomas A. Carpenter, born 1836 Feb 14, died 1911 Aug 16 his wife Olympia I. Kerr, born 1842 Jul 19, died 1919 May 18 their son William B. Carpenter, born 1861 Jul 20, died 1932 Nov 29
Hezekiah Willard, 1862-1936
his wife Mary N. Carpenter, [evidently daughter of Thomas] 1864-1957
I hope this helps someone.
John Chandler

Thankful See Notes Thompson

NOTE: The Carpenter Family in America Book of 1912, on pages 330 and 331 gives the descent of her son/grandson of number 1884a Benjamin Carpenter.
The ancestry of her husband Benjamin IS AT ODDS with submitted material and the 1912 Book. Thus I am allowing two marriages seemingly to the same person to reflect the differences. Where the commonality is the closest without conflict, I will merge data on this descendancy line. JRC Feb 2001.

... Here, in the early summer of this year, the first class, forming the original nucleus of the present Methodist Episcopal Church, was organized, with only five members.
They were as follows : Leader, Levi Frisbie ; members, Sally Frisbie, Amy Hatch, Lydia Dunton, Clara Low. To these were soon after added : John Low, Mrs. Goodspeed, Anna Goodspeed, Mercy Goodspeed, John Ferris, Patience Ferris, Mrs. Widow Martin, Lucy Loveland, Betsey Farnsworth. The place of worship was at the school-house above named, and Fisher's Mills occasionally, and subsequently at the school-house in the south part of the village (now the residence of Dewit Hooper), but this was usually occupied on the Sabbath by the Baptists as their place of worship. The social meetings were held at Frisbie's, Ferris's and Low's, near the present residence of Henry Shelden. The quarterly meetings, which drew the people together from all parts of the circuit, where sometimes held in Captain Frisbie's barn, occasionally in the grove adjoining the late residence of William Frisbie, sometimes in Judge Hatch's hall (1821 N. Allen), and later, in 1830-31, they were held once or twice in the Baptist church, which stood on the hill opposite the residence of A. Carpenter.

Subject: Carpenter burial grounds
Good evening Mr. Carpenter,
Our names are Scott Jaworski and Michael Taylor. We reside at 123 Lyndon Road in Cranston, RI 02905. Our property is located next door to the Carpenter burial site.
For the past ten years, we have been maintaining the Carpenter property. This includes mowing, organic fertilizer treatments, damaged tree removals, and the overall beautification of the property. We pay $740 per year to maintain the site and have paid an additional $2300 ($1000 just last week) to remove the mentioned damaged trees. That is $9700 spent over the past 10 years on this property. The City of Cranston refuses to maintain the property, which is why we do it.
We write to you today because we have notified the City that we would like to claim 816 square feet of this property as our own under RI State Law 34-7-1, which pertains to adverse possession of property. The Cranston Historical Society has told us that they are not in charge of the property. Our City Councilman and the Constituent Affairs Office have notified us and explained that in order for us to obtain this property, we need your family's permission to have it deeded to us.
As you can see in the attached pictures, our property line begins at the beginning of the fence. We would like to extend out 12 feet to the third post and 68 feet down to the sidewalk, which is 816 square feet. The monument would be a safe 10 feet away from our proposed new property line.
Why do we want to acquire this land? We want to put a straight line of flowering shrubs down the property line, shrinking the cemetery plot to hinder people from using it. The people in our neighborhood believe that they are entitled to use this lot for gatherings. We disagree as the people paying to maintain it. We have even seen kids climbing on the monument, which is completely disrespectful. We would then like to put up a cemetery fence around the monument to keep people away from it and have the area clearly marked as an historic cemetery. We want you to understand that we are not just looking to snatch 816 square feet of land. We are looking to preserve this property and make it beautiful. Since we are paying for the land as it is, we don't see why we should not own it and rightfully pay taxes on it. We would continue to maintain the rest of the property, of course.
If this is something that you would agree to, we would need a notarized, certified letter granting us permission to acquire the discussed property. We will mention that it is within our legal right to claim the property outright, which we are prepared to do, but we wanted to confer with you first out of respect.
Should you like to discuss the matter, I can be reached at 401-837-4822.
Thank you for your time and consideration!
Sincerely,
Michael Taylor

Subject: Carpenter Surname Project Join Request

The following request to join the Carpenter project was entered at Family Tree DNA by Conor Loftus .
Hello, I am researching my fathers mothers lineage. Her maiden name is Daily, but her great-great-grandfather was Augustus Downing Daily who married Olive Minnie Carpenter. Olive Minnie is the daughter of Alpha Carpenter who is the daughter of Nicholas Carpenter. Nicholas Carpenter's great-great-grandfather is William Carpenter (1610). I discovered the connection to William Carpenter after reading the book History and Genealogy of the Carpenter Family in America by Daniel Hoogland Carpenter. My grandmother married John Loftus, so now the family name that is related to Carpenter is Loftus

Subject: James Lafayette (Lewis) Carpenter
Mr. John Carpenter,
I'm the grandson of James Lafayette (Lewis) Carpenter, b. 2/25/1904, d. 12/31/1977 (Tacoma, Washington). He was in the U.S. Army for more than 30 years. And, I'm the son of Kenneth Boyd Carpenter, b. 6/8/1933. He served in the U.S. Air Force for more than 20 years. My Dad is 81 and still enjoying life.
My Uncle Jon is my Dad's youngest brother. As of yesterday, Jon informed me of the 1901 book by Daniel Hoogland Carpenter, "The Carpenter Family In America." That's an impressive work. It's exciting to entertain the idea that I'm a descendant of a very early lineage of Carpenter to have come to America. However, I'm a cautious person. I hope your knowledge of the various lines and expertise in genealogy can lead you to render an opinion as to whether James Larayette (Lewis) Carpenter is in fact related to one of the lineages of Carpenters who came to American very early on. I do not want you to go to any trouble on this matter. Rather, I hope you have information at your fingertips that provides a definitive answer. Hope you do. Thank you!
Best regards,
Jim

Memories & Condolences
I am saddened to hear of the passing of Jonathan whom I knew over the 12 years I spent at St. Vincent's Apts. During that time, we enjoyed frequent conversations - he was a keen observer of human behavior, world events and the goings on at St. Vincent's. With a fantastic and wry sense of humor, he could also be kind and sympathetic to some others in the building whom he thought of as less fortunate. What I most remember was his immense courage in the face of his disability. He accepted life's harshest curveballs with dignity and grace. Although he could be a curmudgeon at times, his mischievous streak counteracted the frustration that must have plagued him through those difficult years.
I understand he was once a business-owner and equestrian. He continued his love of animals at St. Vincent's, caring for an adopted cat which he adored. (I also remember when my own cat passed away, he made a point of visiting me and was a great comfort.) Through the years, he was committed to the welfare of his neighbors and visited my office often to express his concern over anyone he thought might be having a hard time.

He will be sorely missed. Sincerest condolences to his family.

A Strange Tragedy In Michigan
Local Woman Nearly Lost Her Life While on a Visit to Relatives
Mrs. Anna (Decker) Courtox of Warsaw, NY, had a very narrow escape from death, recently, when she was in Belding, Michigan visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mr. Lester Carpenter. Gas fumes, blown back through the chimney into the house by a high wind, caused the death of Mr. Carpenter and the serious illness of herself, two cousins, and a neighbor who came to the house to help after the others were taken ill. The doctor also collapsed at the hospital after he had taken them there for treatment.
Mr. Carpenter, 73, manager of the Belding Co-op, and a former resident of Wyoming County, (NY), became ill at about ten o'clock and died an hour later at his home, as the doctor was attempting to revive him. Shortly after, Mrs. Emmons, his daughter, and Mrs. Courtox fell unconscious and they were removed to the hospital in Ionia in an ambulance where they were kept for two and half days. The grandson 14, who arrived home later in the evening was also taken ill.
Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter and the other two women had been playing games during the evening and Mrs. Carpenter, growing tired went on to bed at nine o'clock. As she closed her bed room door and opened her window she escaped the fumes. The others who remained downstairs were not aware of the fumes as they noticed no odor. However, the hospital attendants who worked over them later on, said their clothing had a sweetish smell.
The cause of the tragedy was a mystery to the authorities for some time, as it was definitely ascertained that food they had eaten was not impure. Finally, it was discovered that when the coal furnace in the house was reconverted for gas, a workman had failed to close the chimney clean-out opening at the ground level, and a strong wind blowing in at this point had forced the poisonous fumes back into the house.

4542. Amos L. Carpenter

NOTES: From Barbara Martin:
OK, I did say I had something else on Timothy's son, Amos L. I had forgotten that I had found a slight possibility of a connection. The last census and for that matter, the last record I found for him was the 1880 census. Here, from my database notes:
1880 census: Keokuk, Lee, Iowa, HH#190
Amos Carpenter, age 30, Oil business, b. Ohio
Nellie, wife, age 24, keeping house, b. Ohio, both parents Scotland
Flora, 1, daughter, b. Illinois
Flora Frazer, age 50, mother, b. Scotland
Bridget Lacy, age 22, servant, b. Iowa, both parents Ireland
After that, no more Amos L. Carpenter b. in 1820. In 1900, I found his ex-wife, divorced and professing to having had only one child, and she and the daughter living with his wife's mother. Where was Amos?
1900 census: South Township, Chicgo, Cook, Illinois, p. 112, HH#3226
Flora Fraser, head, May 1829, age 71, wd., mother of 4, 1 living, b. in Scotland as were both parents, immigrated 1850
Nellie F. Carpenter, daughter, Mar 1856, 44, div. 1 child, b. Ohio, both parents Scotland
Flora M. Carpenter, G. daughter, Sept 1878, 21, b. Illinois, both parents Ohio Here's where it gets tricky. I found the following Amos F. in 1900 and 1910. This person sports an F. middle initial, and is 10 years younger than our son of Timothy, but note his occupation and compare it to above. Also note he has male children. However, he says he has been married just 2 times, and this wife says she has had no babies. Nellie. divorced first wife, reported she had had only 1 child. So., this Amos would have had to marry 3 times. So that's 3 strikes against him being Timothy's Amos - the name, the age, the no. of marriages. For those reasons, I've not traced him further. Should I perhaps look more into this? [ANSWER: NO. THIS AMOS IS FROM ANOTHER LINE. SEE: Amos F. Carpenter-132529 PER JRC]

1900 census: Ames twp., Athens Co., Ohio, HH#152
Amos F. Carpenter, b. Feb. 1860, age 40, b. Ohio as were both parents, Contrator of oil wells, could r&w, renting house, newly married
Lillian R., wife, b. Octo 1859, age 40, had not had any children, b. Ohio as werre both parents, could r&W
Bertha, daughter, May 1887, age 13, b. Ohio as were both parents, at school
Lena, daughter, Dec 1892, age 7, ditto
Thomas E., Feb 1890, age 10, ditto
Charles, Nov 1895, age 4, ditto
(These children were not born to Lillian, so this Amos had been previously married. Our Amos's first wife was Nellie, and she is listed in 1900 in Chicago, divorced, living with her mother. If this is our Amos, he has married for the third time).
1910 census: Wesley twp., Washington Co., Ohio, HH# 96
Amos F. Carpenter, age 50, m. 2, presently 11 years, b. Ohio as were both parents, farmer, mortgage farm
Lilliam R., 50, m1, never gave birth
Edward T. age 19, teacher-common schools
Lenna, age 18, home
Chares, 16, farm laborer

Subject: Carpenter history
Hey, Carpenter Family,
I've made a find concerning our Grandpa Van R. Carpenter that I'm excited about. It provides partial answers to at least two questions that I've had: We know that our grandfather was away from his family for about 20 years, from about early 1880 to about 1900. Where did he first go? Then, Aunt Hattie told us in one of her articles (I report it on p. 37 of my Carpenter book: "My father, who had been a very wealthy man, had been sick two or three years when he died and his affairs were in a dreadful state. In our attic we had a box of stock that wasn't worth a cent. Mother said once we could paper our house with it."") That was late 1899. So, what kind of stock did he hold and then lose?
I had found Grandpa Van listed in the 1880 census, fresh out of high school, still living in the household with his parents, Stephen and Naomi. They were not in Columbus, Ohio where their home was, but Piqua, Miami Co., Ohio and G-Gp Stephen was "in silver mining". Later, they moved back to Columbus.
Well, here goes my newest discovery: Thanks to a new search engine, I have found Grandpa Van in another place also in 1880, perhaps a quick move from the family, in Silver Cliff, Colorado. When I looked for him on the census there, I was amazed that everybody listed were from other states, and 90% of them were engaged in prospecting or mining. Van was in the mining group and living on Main Street, perhaps a hotel. He also returned to Columbus for awhile after that.
It would appear, then, that great-gp Stephen had somehow lined up with the mining company in Silver Cliff, and had sent gp Van out there, perhaps to represent him? That's answer #1, and while Stephen had invested heavily in the company, in time it went bankrupt and his stock became worthless. That's answer #2
Of course, that find meant I had to learn about silver mining in Silver Cliff, Custer Co, Colorado. You can google those words and learn all you want to about the town, even the mysterious lights in the cemetery. This is a gist of it:
Silver Cliff was a famous silver-mining camp in central Custer County. The silver strike here was so rich that the population boomed and Silver Cliff became the third largest town in Colorado Territory (after Denver and Leadville) for a while. Around the time of statehood, the politicos even entertained the idea of making Silver Cliff the state capitol. Silver Cliff took the county seat from Rosita in 1886 but lost it to Westcliffe in 1928.
This was a rough and rowdy town in those early days. The big mine was the Silver Cliff Mine, later known as the Geyser Mine. The mine might have been profitable except for the actions of certain East Coast stock manipulators. Shares in the mine were first promoted and sold by a James R. Keene of New York. Keene was reasonably famous as a scam operator and he took the company into bankruptcy within a few years. Then the property was sold to the Julianna Mining Company, run by a Dr. Richard C. Flower of Boston. Flower was even more unscrupulous in his stock promotions and sales and he also took the company into bankruptcy, in 1888. Shareholders then rescued the company and renamed it the Geyser Mining Company, but the primary operators were more of Flower's cronies. In the end, the mine never turned an official profit. At one time, though, it was the deepest mine in the state of Colorado.

Another source:
The Geyser Mine started the silver mining rush of Silver Cliff. Mining started in July of 1877 and continued for 23 years until July 1900. The Geyser Mine is located Northeast of the Silver Cliff Museum. (Note how that time period compares with Van's presence there and the death of his father in 1899).
If you are interested at all in this little town that was a part of our family history for awhile, and then a great part in our financial history, you might want to explore these sites:

UPDATE: May 2020
Grandpa Van Carpenter Before Meeting Grandma Bell The story of our Grandfather Van Carpenter poses some of the deepest mysteries of our near relatives, many of which remained unsolved until recently. Prior to my adventure into genealogy, we knew almost nothing of him. He had died when Daddy was a small child and Grandma remarried several years later. Grandma and her new husband, He nry Canfield, took 20 her two young sons and moved to Mississippi. Daddy grew up knowing very little about his own father, and we knew even less. His parents and siblings did not even know where he was for a period of 20 years. Now, we know!! Very recently, Stringing together the various bits of information I picked up, this is what I learned. Van was born to Stephen Van Rensselear and Naomi Hankins Carpenter on July 22, 1861, in Columbus, Ohio. His parents had been married just the previous year. He was their first child and he was born into luxury and wealth. The 1860 census showed his father in possession of $15,000 worth of real estate and $5,000 worth of personal property. I think you could multiply those numbers by at least 100 or more to get modern day values. His mother as a new bride already had a live-in servant, so it is apparent that she didn't face the same life of drudgery as did our other great-grandmothers. Our Grandfather Van R. Carpenter showed up for the first time in the 1870 census. He was listed as Fannie R., age 8. That census taker had difficulty spelling. Van was going to school, but his little sisters and brother, Grace, Dell N. and baby Ida were at home with their mother. (Ida would die of cholera infantum in September of that year). Their father, Stephen, had a wholesale notion store that year, and still had the same wealth as in 1860, in spite of the Civil War. Their mother, Naomi, was then in possession of $9000 worth of personal goods of her own. By June 7, 1880, the family had moved, temporarily perhaps, to Piqua, Ohio, and Van, 18, was there at home with all his sisters and one brother. Their father was engaged in silver mining that year. He also held stock in that company. However, three weeks later, I found Van living alone in Silver Cliff, Custer Co., Colorado. He was working as a miner. Silver Cliff was formed in the late 1870s to house the miners of its namesake, the Silver Cliff mine, and other silver mines in the neighborhood. In a very angry letter written to his sister, Hattie, in 1901, twenty years later, he said, "Every since I was bundled off to California with Nellie I have been the dog thrown out of the kennel without a bone". (He had a cousin named Nellie, daughter of his school teacher half-aunt Ellen, who lived in California). Apparently that was the beginning of Van's troubles. The following is the first of many newspaper reports posting our grandfather's experiences. (I found all the newspaper accounts through ancestry.com, in its newspapers.com link. January 9, 1881: The Cincinnati Enquirer (Cincinnati, Ohio) Piqua, Ohio, Jan 8.—This evening a young man named Van Carpenter presented a check to Spencer & Co. for $21, on the Piqua National Bank, purported to have been drawn by S. R. Ogden, proprietor of the Railroad Hotel at Bradford Junction, and had it cashed. He then went to A. Berting & Co., presented another like the first, and obtained the money. In a short time both checks were discovered to be forgeries. Carpenter was found in a saloon and arrested, and a part of the money recovered. He had a partner named Dan Gorman with whom he divided the cash, and who was also arrested. Both will have a hearing on Monday. A third check for $21 was put out by Carpenter, but no money obtained on it. It is signed by the young man's father, and is believed to be a forgery. Although the operations were very bold, this is young Carpenter's first known offense. He is about twenty years old, and is well connected. The last account of Van in Ohio was a mention in the Columbus city directory of 1881. The family was back at home in Columbus, and Van was listed as a boarder with them. Could it be that he escaped having to serve jail time, and this was the event that sparked the "bundling off to California"? The next account I found in a California newspaper: June 17, 1884: Los Angeles Herald (Los Angeles, California) A Thief Promptly Caught Chief Caddy yesterday received a dispatch from Ventura stating that a man calling himself Henry Harris, alias V. R. Carpenter, had hired a span of sorrel mares and a buggy to take a drive around town, but failed to return that day or the next. The Sheriff telegraphed to Los Angeles to arrest such a man and take charge of the property. Soon after receiving the dispatch the Chief found the horses and buggy at Wickershams' stable, where they had ben put in soak for $50, which Carpenter had spent in a free and go as you please manner. About eleven o'clock last night Officer Botello captured Carpenter near the depot and placed him in the lockup. His career was very bold and appropriately brief. San Quentin yawns for such scoundrels as this man Carpenter. He was sentenced to a stay in prison. This entry gave us a physical description of our grandfather, and it sounds so much like our own father: July 11 1884: San Quentin State Prison, California Van R. Carpenter of Ohio, Crime: Vagrant, embezzlement, Term: 2 yrs., Ventura Co. Age 24 Occ: Piano Tuner, Height: 6ft 3/4in Complexion: Light, Eyes: Gray, Hair: Brown. Size of foot: 10", Long spare features, eyes deepset, large ears stand out from head, high cheekbones, face thin, full finehead (or forehead), small scar left side of top of head, scar left forefinger, birthmark inside right forearm, small slender hands, vaccine mark right upper arm, hairy back, square shouldered, slim built. 1 After 6 months, he was conditionally pardoned and restored by the governor on January 30, 1885. He was then released There was an intervening 8 years for which I found no reports. He is listed in the 1892 Copy of the Great Register of Santa Clara Co., California, Voter Registers, 1866-1898 as a piano tuner and residing in Santa Clara Co. Perhaps he had remained a good citizen long enough to be eligible to vote!! However, alcohol brought an end to that. On August 16, 1892, he arrived at the Folsom State Prison Van R. Carpenter, b. in Ohio, crime: forgery, arrived Aug 16, 1892, to serve 2 years, Contra Costa, age 33, piano tuner, 6'0", dark comp., dark gray eyes, black hair, discharged April 16, 1894. Same physical appearance, same occupation, same crime. 2 When he was released, he immediately moved to Sacramento, California, and began a new career with another new name: April 30, 1894: Los Angeles Times THE WESTERNERS. A Four-term convict Heads the Stockton Contingent-Portland's Choice Lot. Associated Press Leased-wire Service Sacramento, April 29: The Industrial Army business has received a hard blow here. "Col." Inman of the Stockton contingent, which came here two weeks and has since gathered in 250more idle men, is now under arrest in the City Jail charged with vagrancy. Last night Warden All of the Folsom Prison, telephoned Chief of Police Drew that an officer of the prison had identified Inman as one Van R. Carpenter, a four-term convict, who was discharged from the penitentiary the day the Stockton army arrived and he told Chief Drew how this act could be verified by marks on the man's body. Capt. Green went out to Sutter Fort and requested "Col." Inman to come in and see Chief Drew, which he did. Very much to his surprise he was made to take off his coat and vest, and sure enough his arms bore the marks described by Warden All. Inman asked what it all meant and was told that he must be locked up for vagrancy. He had on his person a revolver and $70 in money. Being asked if he was not an ex-convict, he replied that he was and admitted having served three terms, two of them for stealing horses and buggies while drunk, and one for forgery. Warden All was called up today and he stated that Carpenter, alias Inman, was released from Folsom Prison on the 16th inst., and in less than twenty-four hours afterward was an officer in the Industrial Army quartered at Agricultural Park in this city. He made his boast before he left that in a few days he would be at the head of one of these bands of Industrials. Warden All says Carpenter, or Inman, served two terms in San Quentin and two at Folsom. The first term All could not tell about, but the second time Carpenter went to prison. I was for two years from Ventura County for robbery. He was pardoned by Gov. Stoneman on February 1, 1885, under the belief that he was about to die of consumption. His third term was also for robbery committed in Santa Clara county, and again he was thought to be dying when his term expired. His last conviction was for forgery committed in Contra Costa County. Carpenter, or Inman, as he is known here succeeded in having "Col." Williams deposed a week ago from the command of the local army and himself elevated to that position. He is a rather bright man and his address is greatly in his favor. He had succeeded in impressing the city officials and others with the idea that he is an honest toiler and who had been unfortunate enough to get out of work and desired to do something for the cause of the so-called Commonwealth by leading a host of men to Washington. Just who will succeed him in command is not now known, but the exposure of his criminal career will doubtless have a bad effect on his followers, by causing the public to lose confidence in the men composing the band, few of whom are known to any citizen.

1892-1894: Folsom St Prison2
The San Francisco and Oakland Industrial armies, numbering about nine hundred men, arrived here at 6 o'clock this evening from Richland, fifteen miles down the river, where they camped last night. They took up their quarters at the baseball grounds in the outskirts of the city. The grounds consist of two blocks, inclosed with a high fence, and with two stands roofed over. The accommodations are very poor, and many of the men are without blankets. They are pretty well supplied with food, however, one man on the road having given them three steers. Wagons were procured on the way for hauling their baggage to the city. Another account of the same event: April 30, 1894: The Record-Union (Sacramento, California) ANOTHER ARMY IS HERE The Oakland 900 Now in Camp at the Ball Grounds, After Their Long and Wearisom March From Walnut Grove. Colonel Inman of the Local Army Under Arrest in the City Jail for Vagrancy His Name Is Carpenter, and He Has Just Served His Fourth Term in the State Prison- His Men Refuse to Affiliate With The Others The local Industrial Army has received a severe shock in the arrest of its leader, Colonel Inman, for vagrancy. And the worst of it is, his name is not Inman at all, but Van R. Carpenter, a man who has but just completed his fourth term in the State Prison, two of them at San Quentin, and two at Folsom. The information on which Chief Drew acted was received Saturday night from Warden All, who informed him that an officer of the prison had recognized in "Col. Inman" ex-convict Carpenter. The Warden told Chief Drew of certain bodymarks borne by Carpenter, and suggested that he examine Inman and see if the statement that he and Carpenter were one and the same person would not be verified. Captain Greene went out to the camp of the Industrials in Sutter's Fort and told Col. Inman that Chief Drew desired to see him at his office, and the Colonel went there at once. "I have an unpleasant duty to perform, Col. Inman," said Chief Drew, when they were alone. "Please remove your coat and bare your arms." Inman turned pale, then his face flushed, and he looked at Chief Drew with an air of astonishment but he complied with the latter's command. Sure enough, there was the tell-tale anchor tattooed on his arm, just as Warden All Had described it. "Aren't you just out of the penitentiary" asked the Chief," and haven't you served four terms for various crimes?" Inman admitted that such was the case "What were you sent up for?" asked the Chief. "Well," replied Inman, "while drunk I stole a horse and buggy, and I was asleep when they caught me and didn't know what I had done." Chief Drew - What were you sent up for the next time? Inman - Well, I stole another horse and buggy while drunk, and this time also I was asleep when arrested.
Chief Drew - And the next time? Inman- The last time I was arrested and sentenced for forgery. I served my time, and now would like to know what I am here for. Chief Drew - You are under arrest. Inman - What for? Chief Drew - For vagrancy. You have been in this city some two weeks, doing nothing for a livelihood, and I understand you joined this so-called army as soon as you got here form Folsom, assuming a different name from your right one. Inman then asked to be permitted to return to the fort and resign his command, but Chief Drew thought he had better remain at the Police Station. He was then searched, and on his person were found a revolver and $70 in money. He said the money belonged to the army fund contributed by citizens for the relief of the men. In conversation with a Record-Union reporter last evening Lt. Col Drummond said that but few of the men at the fort were aware of Inman's arrest, but the matter will be fully explained to them this morning. The men will then be asked to voice their sentiments regarding the future of the regiment. We are very fortunate to have our grandfather's account in his own words. This was a part of the above article: INMAN'S STATEMENT (keep it in mind that Inman is our Van R. Rensselaer) Last evening Inman prepared the following statement for publication: "Now that the fact of my arrest is about to be known to the public, I feel it a duty I owe to those who were under my command to explain how I, an ex-convict, came to be chosen Colonel of the Industrial Army. First, no one knew who or what I was, as there is not an ex-convict in the ranks. I came here from Folsom on April 16th and joined the army on the 17th. "In order to get home and out of the State, I joined Major Williams' army. The following day I was appointed Camp Correspondent, and did what I could to further the interests of the regiment. "On or about the 21st the men became dissatisfied with Major Williams and he resigned, and I was chosen Colonel. I fully realized the desperate chances I was taking in this matter, but I thought that I might be able to take them out of the city before I was recognized. At all events, I started an account system, so that neither I nor any of my men could handle any money, unless by consent of all. I did this to show that I had no intention of making money out of the movement. "I have conducted myself in a manner that was intended to prove that I had reformed. Never have I entered a saloon to drink since I was chosen commander. I have expected to be recognized every day, but I thought my conduct would entitle me to the mercy of all fair-minded citizens. I have worked hard and should in this matter and have worked day and night. "Now, in regard to my penal servitude: The statement is true that I have been sent to prison four times, but out of justice to myself and friends, I wish to explain how and why I was sent there. I came to this coast in 1884. Soon after I commenced to dissipate, and one day while drunk I drove off with a buggy belonging to a neighbor in Ventura. I was crazed by liquor. I drove some distance, and when I commenced to realize the enormity of my joke I stopped, unhitched the team, and went to sleep under the buggy, and was there found by the Sheriff, who advised me to plead guilty, which I did, and for which I received two years, but was soon after pardoned. "I then left the coast for a few months, but owing to ill health came back. Soon after I was again arrested for grand larceny, in this manner: I was working for Miller & Lux at Gilroy. I went into town and drank too much whisky, and while drunk I hired a horse and buggy to go to the ranch, but instead I went in another direction, and was found under a tree, the horse unhitched and I was drunk. I was arrested, pleaded guilty on account of prior conviction, and was given one year. "After doing the year I went to Brazil, and stopped there for a long time, and then came back to California. I again went to work near San Jose, and one day I came into town after paint. The man whom I was with was drinking hard, and so was I. I bought the paint and put it in the wagon and then started out to see the city. Some time during the night I got back to the wagon, untied the horse, and started for home. I was found in another direction, lying on the side of the road, and the horse and wagon some two or three miles farther on. For this I received one year, as I dared not stand trial on account of the prior convictions. "The last and fourth time was in Contra Costa Co. I was working for a man at painting. I went to town, spent what money I had, and as it was a long distance to the ranch, I wrote an order on a storekeeper and signed my employer's name. For this I was arrested, and before my employer could visit me to find out anything about the case, I had pleaded guilty, because I was afraid of the prior convictions. "After cashing this order I went back to the ranch to go to work, but being under the influence of liquor was sent away. Still I made no attempt to get away, and was found drunk near the ranch. "In speaking of these cases, I do so hoping the public will give me some little mercy in connection with justice. I have sworn never to drink nor gamble, and I have complied with my oath so far. When I was down to the city the other day, and everything had gone against me, I had $80 belonging to the regiment. If I had intended to be dishonest, I surely had an opportunity to be so. My accounts are open to the public. I have not received nor spent one cent belonging to the regiment that is not accounted for, and my conduct while here is to be judged by those with whom I have come in contact. Hoping I may be treated fairly in this matter, and again assuring the good people of Sacramento that my intentions were honorable, I will close with ill-feelings for none, but respect and admiration for all law-abiding citizens. "I have this day tendered my resignation, and again allow me to assure my comrades and friends that my arrest is simply made as a precaution against imposition, and not through any spite work of your kind and competent Chief of Police. Signed: L. Inman." (Our Van R. Carpenter) THE MAN'S RECORD (Still a part of the above article) Warden All was called up by the Record-Union yesterday and he stated over the telephone wire that Carpenter, alias Inman, was released fro the Folsom Prison on the 16th instant, and in less than 24 hours afterward was an officer in the Industrial Army then quartered at Agricultural Park in this city. Warden All says that Carpenter (or Inman) served two terms in San Quentin and two at Folsom. The first term All could not tell much about, but he remembered that the second term Carpenter passed in the prison was for two years, from Ventura for grand larceny. He was pardoned by Governor Stoneman on Feb. 1, 1885, under the belief that he was about to die of consumption. His third term was for grand larceny, committed in Santa Clara Co., and again he was thought to be dying when his term expired and he left the prison. His last conviction was for forgery committed in Congra Costa Co. This was even reported in an out-of-state paper: Apr. 30, 1894: The Salt Lake Tribune (Salt Lake City, Utah, p. 1) Carpenter, or Inman, as he is known here, succeeded in having Col. Williams deposed a week ago from the command of the local army, and himself elevated to that position. He is a rather bright man and his address is greatly in his favor. He had succeeded in impressing the city officials and others with the idea that he is an honest toiler, and who had been unfortunate enough to get out of work and desired to do something for the cause of the so-called Commonwealth by leading a host of men to Washington. Just who will succeed him in command is not now known, but the exposure of his criminal career will doubtless have a bad effect on his followers by causing the public to lose confidence in the men composing the band, few of whom are known to any citizen. Barbara's note: Apparently he was not charged, and a week later, he was free and doing his work: May 5, 1894: Record-Union (Sacramento, California) Colonel Carpenter's Minstrel Show On Monday Night The programs are out for the minstrel show to be given at the Metropolitan Theater next Monday evening by meant in Col. Van R. Carpenter's Industrial Army, now at Sutter' s Fort, assisted by some local talent. The announcement reads: TO THE PUBLIC: Whereas, We, the Industrial Army, under the command of Colonel Van R. Carpenter, now quartered at Sutter's Fort, are about to start for Washington, and as we are not in condition, financially speaking to pay fare and expenses, and being desirous of being self-supporting, we, the members of said command, respectfully announce to the public that we will give a minstrel entertainment at the Metropolitan Theater, Monday, May 7th. We possess good talent and plenty of it. Please notice our array of artists under the direction of Harry Carson: (The program continued to include the names of the artists and their performances. The acts included "knock-about" songs and dance, clog imitations, sketches, acrobatic specialties, jigs, songs and recitations.) The prices of admission have been placed at 50 cents; children, 25 cents; reserved seats, 25 cents extra. The money secured in this manner is to help us on our way to Washington. We will leave the day following our entertainment, even should we get only a short distance, where we will give another entertainment. Thanking the citizens for their many favors, we remain, respectfully, THE INDUSTRIAL ARMY, Under command of Colonel V. R. Carpenter.

May 7, 1894, The Record-Union (Sacramento, California), p. 3 ……. Tonight Col. Van R. Carpenter's men at Sutter's Fort will give a variety performance at the Metropolitan Theater, from which they hope to obtain sufficient funds to start them on their way toward the Missouri River. Most of the men have homes in the East, whence they came last winter in search of employment, and they are anxious to return. It is Col. Carpenter's intention to start tomorrow if enough money can be raised to carry his men to some good-sized town where the public should liberally assist them by the purchase of tickets to their entertainment. They have arranged an excellent program, and those who attend tonight may reasonably count on receiving their money's worth of fun. CARD FROM COLONEL CARPENTER Eds. Record-Union: As this will be my last opportunity expressing my feelings, I take the liberty of again asking for some of your valuable space that I may again thank your readers and the citizens of Sacramento for their kind treatment given to my men and myself. In no other city in the Union could a man "placed in my position," have been treated with more mercy and with more justice. Handicapped as I was, with a past record so bad, I can hardly realize that so many people would, "with one accord," as it were, give a man a chance to prove whether or not he intended to reform. This treatment has been my salvation, for I promise the citizens, one and all, that I will never in any way cause one to think their confidence has been misplaced. I thank the church roll for their prayers: I thank the press for allowing me to explain; I thank all for their mercy. And, in behalf of my three companies of 150 men, I thank all for feeding and clothing us for the past 21 days. On Tuesday I will take my men out of Sacramento and travel as far as I can. I will then stop and give one or two entertainments, and start again, and should we be favored with good fortune and we reach our homes and present ourselves petition for better times at Washington, it will be with a lasting love for the big-hearted people of Sacramento. A statement of receipts, expenditures - in fact, everything connected with my command- will be given on Tuesday morning: for, although many heads sometimes complicate simple propositions, we feel that all should know just how we have handled their donations. On Monday our boys will eat a big dinner arranged by the ladies of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, at 3 pm, after which the three companies will escort the show people as far as the theater, and then return to camp and prepare to leave Tuesday morning. Sixty-eight of the boys under my command signed the pledge today (Sunday), and if they are to be believed they will keep it. So, again thanking you for your kind and merciful treatment, I remain yours, determined to do right. V. R. Carpenter Colonel of the Regiment May 8, 1894: The Record-Union (Sacramento, Calif., p. 6) The Industrials Last Night's Show-Both Armies Expected to Move Today

Colonel Van R. Carpenter of the Sutter Fort Industrial regiment will start for the East with his men today. They gave a variety entertainment at the Metropolitan Theater last night for the purpose of raising funds with which to pay their fare for a portion of the distance. There were fifteen performers on the stage in the overture, and they gave a very creditable show, a better one than many professional companies put up. The regiment contains many who have been on the stage before, and the people along the line of the railroad may depend on being well entertained while aiding the men in reaching their homes and families in the East. Unfortunately, Grandpa Van fell off the wagon. Two years later found him still in California and with yet-again a new name: June 13, 1896, the San Francisco Call (San Francisco), p. 9 An Unemployed Major-General Arrested for Stealing a Bicycle William Martin, also known as Van R. Carpenter, was arrested on Thursday night on 6th St by Sergeant David and Detective Harper, while trying to dispose of a bicycle that had evidently been stolen. Martin has had a decidedly checkered career. In 1884 he was sent from Ventura Co. to the State Prison for grand larceny and three years later from Contra Costa Co for a similar offense. Since then he has served several terms for thieving. Finally finding that thieving was not a profitable business Martin started out to win military honors for himself, and the first opening that presented itself was in the Industrial Army of unemployed that was camped in Sacramento. Martin with little effort reached the honors of major-general of the first division to leave Sacramento. He was then known under the name of Carpenter. His military honors lasted only so long as the "army" continued on the road. When this body disbanded Martin drifted back into private life again and spent much of his time endeavoring to keep out of the clutches of the law. There was no followup to this article, so maybe it was dismissed. It may well have been that at this time, he joined the work on the Panama Canal. Thanks to the very same archaeologist who is conducting the dig into Indian remains in Miami at this very time (July, 2006), we have access to letters that Grandpa Van wrote to his mother between 1909 and his death in 1917. (The story of the archaeologist will be told in another chapter). One letter, though, preceded the letters to his mother. This letter was written to his nextto-the-youngest sister, Hattie. He still hadn't seen any of the family for eighteen years, and Hattie was about five years old when he left home. She grew up and after her father's death literally took charge of the family. Apparently, Van and Hattie had already exchanged a couple of letters, and he was furious at her for what she wrote in those letters. This is a long and angry letter, but I am copying it in its entirety because it may down the road provide us with more information and understanding than we may have at the moment. Once we take a closer look at Aunt Hattie and her personality in a later chapter, we will understand the anger.

I am retaining Grandpa Van's punctuation and spelling just as he wrote it, but I am separating the text into paragraphs to make the reading easier. Our grandfather had a very good vocabulary, but he used phonetic spelling a great deal, as did most people of that day. He also inserted the underlines. 11:30 p.m. October 28th, 1901 I open my letter to suggest that perhaps it would be better for you "and everybody concerned in fact" to let some male friend do your corosponding. It dose not bcome any lady to write the kind of letters you seem to think necessary in writing to your brother. Although that brother "is 40 years old and entended to go home to let his poor old mother slave for him." Shame Hattie I can't believe you wrote those words. V. R. C. Jacksonville October 28, 1901, same letter Miss Hattie Carpenter Your letter of the 25th is at hand. And no surprise. every since I was bundeled off to California with Nellie I have been the dog thrown out of the kennel without a bone. at times when I through hard luck was hungry I would receive letters from home pleading poverty and in the same breath speak of the fine times you were having, bikes, cameras, etc. All of which went a long ways toward making me think I was receiving truthfull accounts of affairs at Columbus. the letter I have just received from you was writen by yourself no doubt but dictated by some one else. either that or you are not the daughter of S. V. R. Carpenter. I could write things should I follow the dictates of my mind at the present time that would not look well to the eyes of he or she who aided you in composing the insulting tirade you sent me. since though you have taken the view of the matter that you have, it may be a good place for me to do likewise. You speak of Del spending all the money he can get ahold of or to be exact "He spends every cent for us". Has he too turned our a spendthrift. and the ballance of the "Girls" they to are "dependent upon your charity it seems. Strange they to have lost the Boasted Pride of the Carpenters and sit quietly and allow you to support them. The whole thing looks to me like Van was to be kept away from Miami as he might ask questions. That would be hard to answer. When Papa died did he leave no message for me? Was there a will? Who handled the estate after Papa's death? "Suppose"- I should come to Miami and demand my prorate of the money left by Father. Could an accounting be give that would be satisfactory. You no doubt have received my last letter. the first was written the day I was exposed here by a fellow from California and worded I don't know how. by the time you have received this others will have written you. You tell me to turn and try and be a man. Poor child you don't know what you are talking or writing about. The surprise I entended when I wrote to Mr. Dearburne "Our friend" was this. the position I have just lost (I say lost because at present I am not working for the Co.) paid me a good sallery with the promise of an increase. I entended to send you or some of the rest a month's salary along about the 15th of Nov. And do it without you knowing from who it had come. my ententions were honorable. as the friends I have in Eheru wil testify. I even asked Mr. Cleavland the man who I worked for if he would send me to the East Coast next month. that was the surprise so help me God. You speak of me 40 years old wanting to come home to be cared for by my old mother. it's a lie pure and simple. and the idea never originated in your head. You say that my request is simply abominable. perhaps. yet I know of ladies who would think twice before saying so. You blame me for Mama's troubles and speak of the past 5 years. have I been any trouble during that time. Shame on you Hattie to lend yourself to any such scheme. I wont go to Port Lemon. I shant leave Florida but I tell you what I will do. This is Monday. if by next Monday, Nov 4th I do not receive a copy of Father's will along with a statement of the administrator showing the whole business, I shall not only hire an attorney here to look the matter up but I will come in person to Miami to see for myself. I suppose you have me pictured as a drunken dilapidated old bum laying around bar rooms begging for drinks etc. You are mistaken. My appearance is that of a gentelman. My conduct is that of a gentelman and up to the time I was so rudely held up for public inspection was considerd a man amongst men. I was in Miami just a short time ago on the Steamer Anthea, the guest of Capt. Cantie and Family. I may have said things in this letter that look ungentlemanly but you may blame yourself and adviser. You can rest assured on one thing. I mean everything I say. And shall carry it out as nearly as I can. had you been a man instead of a woman I should have written a different letter or perhaps none at all but would have started for Miami. "Man 40 years old wanting his poor old mother to care for him". Hattie that is the meanest most contemptable thing I ever had said to me. If a man told me that to my face I would kill him. I shall send your letter to people who know me better than you. Rather than eat a piece of bread that came from you I would starve. You say you are glad I am well. you lie again. You were in hopes I was dead. but you will find me one of the livelyest dead men that you or your advisors have ever run across. If I had any love for you at all before it has by your own "despicable action in writing the letter" turned to a bitter hate that I did not know I was capable of fathering. A few words and I will close. (Your letter came just as I started to work on a set of scenery for a new hall. I have postponed commencing the work and feel more like getting drunk than anything else. If I don't break the pledge I took 7 months ago it wont be your fault). I hope you enjoy being the cause. I suppose you will either return this letter or ignore it. don't do either. it's written in answer to yours. (and to do either will only make things more trublesome to straighten out). You will therefore comply with my requests. and do so before Nov 5th. Otherwise Mama and the balance will have to find out that contrary to their wishes I am alive. Write me at No.11 South Hogan St. Jacksonville. not to Box 48. You say you have trouble in the past 5 years. "I haven't". Mine was all sunshine. I wish you was a man. Van R. C.

Remember by Nov. 5th untill that time I shall devote my sparetime in getting together such letters and testimony that will do the most good. V. R. C. Dont forget - No. 11 Sth Hogan St. on or before Nov. 5th 3 He made the promised trip to Miami the following summer. The city newspaper, The Miami Metropolis, carried this item on August 1, 1902: Mr. V. R. Carpenter, eldest son of Mrs. S. V. R. Carpenter, of Cocoanut Grove, after an absence of eighteen years met his mother and sisters in Miami during the jubilee. For five years his mother had believed him dead and the reunion was a very happy one for her. Since Mr. Carpenter left home he has traveled several times over the world, and his sisters have grown up so he has hardly yet been able to tell one from the other. For the past five months, Mr. Carpenter has been engaged in business in Titusville, but is making arrangements to come to Miami. 4 By October, Grandpa Van had moved to Miami. The paper reported on Oct. 10, 1902: Mr. Van Carpenter, oldest son of Mrs. S. V. R. Carpenter of Cocoanut Grove, who has been globe trotting for the last twenty years, has come home to stay to the delight of his mother and sisters. Mr. Carp. He is entertaining his family and their friends with scenes and incidents of his travels. Mr. V. R. Carpenter returned Sunday morning from Daytona and will engage in business near home. 5 Life in the big house in Cocoanut Grove must have become a bit crowded or strained, because we read two months later: Gracie, Louise and Hattie Carpenter have taken rooms in the Fogg residence on 14th. They found it inconvenient to come and go to Cocoanut Grove. 6 Did they grow weary of their brother's presence? They did return home after Van left again. Grandpa's brother Del also chose to come home about this time. At the end of December the paper reported: Mr. Del N. Carpenter returned last Saturday from Honduras for a couple of months stay with his mother, Mrs. SVR Carpenter of Cocoanut Grove. Mr. Carpenter is looking fine and is still enthusiastic over the progress in Honduras. 7 Grandpa Van remained in Miami only a short while as indicated by another mention in the paper a few months later. He and his family must have reconciled, because his future letters were of a much happier tone. He and his mother definitely restored their loving relationship. September 4, 1903, The Durham Sun, Durham, North Carolina, p. 1 Has Been To Panama Van R. Carpenter, a painter, is doing some work in West Durham. Mr. Carpenter has recently returned from the Isthmus of Panama, and talks interestingly of the work of constructing the canal between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans. He has promised the Sun an account of what he saw in that country, and we hope to be able to lay the same before our readers. September 19, 1903 (same paper) Up-to-date Road Signs In another column will be found an advertisement of Van R Carpenter and L D Rogers, calling attention to their road sign business. They are in fine shape to turn out work of this kind, and guarantee perfect satisfaction. We have seen some of their work and it is first class in every particular. Give them your orders. Corner Church and Parrish Streets September 22, 1903, The Durham Sun (Durham, North Carolina) V. R. Carpenter left over the Norfolk & Western road this morning for South Boston, Virginia, to look after some businesss matters in that town. April 8, 1905, The Miami News His tendency to be a showman may have evolved quite naturally from his family practices. It appears from social news reports in Miami, Florida that his unmarried sisters were constantly engaged in various musical entertainments. One such was April 7, 1905, when his sister Daisy Carpenter presented "The Polish I Received in Philadelphia". Each of them was trained in either singing, playing an instrument, dancing or art. June 28, 1905, The Courier Journal, Louisville, Kentucky Love Affair Causes Van R. Carpenter To Take Laudanum at Henderson. Henderson, KY, June 27. Van R. Carpenter, a traveling agent, attempted suicide here today by taking three ounces of laudanum. The attempt was made because of a love affair. Carpenter is still in a precarious condition. October 18, 1908: Pensacola News Journal, p. 3. (at a county fair at Samson, Alabama). One of the leading features of the program was the daily slide for life by Van R. Carpenter and the daily balloon ascension proved another drawing card. Apparently, this act was a variation of the same one from 1906 for which he was called The World's Most Daring Aeronaut September, 1909: Cape San Blas, across from the bay at Port St. Joe, Florida We next heard from him in 1909 when he was working on what is now know as Cape San Blas, across from the bay at Port St. Joe, Florida. I can't figure what he was doing there, because there was just a lighthouse and the fishermen's camp in those days. Could he have been the lighthouse keeper? (I'm adding paragraphs just to make the reading easier). He wrote: St. Joe Bay September 17, 1909 Dear Mother and all Your Postal and letter reached me last night (But I had to make an 18 mile walk to get them along with other mail delayed at Panama). The fishermen who have been camped with me have given it up in disgust and gone home. They won't be back untill Oct 1st or later. It makes it mighty bad on me as its only just a chance that anybody comes to St. Joe that will think of bringing mail to me. If Cap Anderson is home and knows of anybody coming this way he always sends the mail to me. Yesterday I went to the "Point" on speculation and found a man who had come from Panama on Monday last. He had 21 letters besides bundles and packages. I am very sorry you are having trouble with your limbs Mother. have you ever tryd electricity. I know of several cases where electricity has caused some cures tht were little less than myricles. a Mrs. Chessier was so bad that she had to use both hands to lift a cup to her mouth. now her arms and hands are as strong and as stedy as ever. She had discarded her canes (she used two). Sallie writes me that she is imroving under Dr. Rileys treatment of electricity. You remember. She is the lady who lives at Coffee Springs who is parilized. I think a great deal of her. I wish Mother you wold consult with Dr. Skaggs or some good physician regarding the use of electricity. I am going to ask for a "furlow" for 3 days next week. I doubt if I get it however I am expecting my launch everyday. Then I can go and come as I see fit. All the way I have now is my skiff with a small sail and that is very unsatisfactory. I would have given a quarter if you could have seen some biscuits I made this morning. Yesterday I upset a box of soda and in picking it up I put it in a coffee cup intending to put it back into the B P can. but forgot it. So this morning I picked up the cup thinking it was flower and dipped into the barrell of flower untill I had enough flower. I then added my lard and water and stired it up, mixed and needed it, molded it into "biscuits" putt em in the oven. I thought I could see the stove growing bigger and bigger. pretty soon a hinge broke off and the door flew open. the biscuits commencd to fill the air it seemed. in fact it was a raising time in biscuits. Of course I have enlarged some. But those biscuis did rise some and yellow as yellow as a $20.00 gold piece. Bitter - My dog hasn't spoken to me even with his tail since I gve him a piece to eat. but it surely has taught me a lesson always empty soda or bking powder now. Either that or throw out all flour left over. anyway I had to eat flap jacks. Well there is nothing new to write about. Price and Lewis write very nice letters and say nothing about when my job is to end. No news is good news. I see the boat coming down the Bay so will ring off. lots of love. be sure and try the electricity. Write when you can to the same address. Lovingly Van R He was still at the same job the following January: Apalachicola Fla. Jan 19th 1910 Dear Mother and all Just a short letter this morning Mother but what I m going to say I hope will make you feel as good as it does me. My health has been real bad every since I got Mr. Hughes to write you. So fearing I would grow worse and maybe helpess at St. Joe I concluded to ask for a successor in hopes that I will get instant relieff from further duties at St. Joe Bay. I will then start south perhaps by easy stages and perhaps I will go straight through to Miami and Mother. If I find my health gets worse I will stop someplace and build up a little for I want to reach home able and strong enough to go right to work for you and the girls. so if I am a little longer than you think it necessary to make the trip just lay it to that and say. He is trying to get strong enough to be of some use to his Mother rather than be a burden to them. Well as it is near train time I will close and get this letter into the noon mail. With lots of love & hopes mountains high that we may soon see each other. I am as ever Lovingly Van I will write everyday or so & keep you posted as to where I am & how I am. I have lots to tell you Mother Dear when we meet that will make you happy I know. Van 8 1910: Florida census Did Grandpa Van make it all the way to Miami? Perhaps, but by April when the 1910 census was taken, he was living at Freeport, Florida, just a few miles south of DeFuniak Springs in north Florida. He was staying in Mr. Rutan's boarding house in Freeport and his occupation was sign painter.

Van's letter from the Carpenter special collections at the Miami Museum8
He was also listed as a widower. I can find no other marriage record and have no idea 9 where or when this marriage took place. The next series of letters came from Theodore, Alabama in 1912: Theodore Ala. February 5, 1912 Dear Mother As I am just about ready to leave here for a week or ten days, I thought it best to spend the few moments before train time in writing you. I have a small contract of inside and ouside painting at St. Elmo, a coloney of northern people 6 miles south of Theodore. Just as soon as I get it finished I will return and look after the small acrage I have plowed and fertilized. last year off of the same piece of land the owner raised nearly $400.00 worth of mellons to say nothing of beans, squash and cucumbers. If I have good luck with my spring crop I will in all likelyhood buy a small tract near her and putt me up a "camp" and then work the fall crop of sweet potatoes. I have not herd from you this week. hope you are not unwell again. Our blizardy weather has at last broken and instead of ice eveywhere we are getting a little sunshine along with the cold winds from the North. Well, I must try and get this letter into the office so that it will leave on the same train that I go on. Write me at St. Elmo, Al. c/o Author Bouchard. (He is the party who owns the house I am going to work on.) I weighed yesterday 143 when. I came here I weighed I think 117 or 123. I am not sure I think the former. If it wasn't for the violent pains in my head at times I would be feeling fairly fit. Write when you can. Lovingly, Van Theodore Ala March 3, 1912 Dear Mother, I just this moment woke up after a long nap. I got back from St. Elmo last night tired out. had to walk 6 miles after pulling in a hard day's work. Gee but I was tired. Mrs. Gollotte got a nice supper for me and by nine oclock I was in bed. I received an offer yesterday to go to another place not far from here but there is nothing definite yet. I have been with these folks so long I hate to move. There is not a thing to write about so I might as well ring off. I weighed 2 1/2 lbs. more than I have in two years. Lovingly Van Theodore Ala. March 17, 1912 I was some what disipointed in not finding a letter waiting for me when I got back home last night but I comforted myself in thinking that instead of you being too unwell to write that you had written me at St Elmo where I was working when I wrote you last. This coming week and for the next three I will be at the new town of Daws (no post office yet). It is a coloney of Ohio & Ind. folks who have bought tracts from 10 to 160 acres. The Co. (The Mobile Farm Lands Co.) have erected a
1910 Walton Co., FL census9
20 room hotel and are building bungelows and cottages as fast as carpenters can put them up. I am on the inside. Have the hotel to paint and paper and the promise on all the Co. houses. I am doing all the work myself at present but will soon be in shape to hire help. Owing to rains and freezes I have not been able to plant a thing. this time last year the people around Theodore were -----ing on their crops while this year many are just planting beans. Replanting cabbage and potatoes. Turnip greens and cabbage greens are selling at $1.75 per crate. Cabbage "Old" $65.00 per ton and potatoes $1.50 per bushel, but few of the farmers have anything to sell. Well I want to get this letter off on this a.m. train so will ring off. Hope this will find you well and happy. Lovingly, Van Write in care Mobile Farm Lands Co., Battle House, Mobile "Highland Inn"

Theodore Ala. March 31, 1912 Dear Mother Sunday Eve. and everybody at prayer meeting or in bed, a fiting close for one of the grandest days Alabama has seen for months. Everything in bloom the air heavy with the fragrance of blossoms and more birds than ever before. It makes a fellow feel that he is indeed lucky to be alive to enjoy the free blessings God has prepared for us. Mother, Del is not the only farmer (?) that gets it where the chicken did. Out of a row of 142 plants "of cabbage" I counted only 17 that will head. the ballance going to seed. Cabage Greens (the unheaded plant) have been selling for $1.25 per crate now they are 60. But I am not in bad. the man with whom I contracted to do my plowing fooled me and instead of putting $46.00 into fertilizer I don't owe a penny and my seed & etc. plants and labour is all paid for. so let it rain! My health has again taken a turn for good and I am feeling fine. Have enough work along to keep square with the world. and in all just lotts to be gratefull for. No I never wrote P-op mother. just kept putting it off. am so sorry now that I didn't. Have you herd from Mutt lately. where is he Mother and what is he doing (Everybody?) Mrs. Gollotte (the lady with whom I board) & her husband left the two boys with me while they went to prayer meeting. I must go in and see if they are covered up. by by. write as often as you can.
Lovingly Van
Theodore Ala. April 28, 1912 Dear Mother What in the world is the matter. this makes six weeks since I have herd a word from you. Are you sick in this year of such terrible mishaps. I can't but worry. I was going to wire last night but concluded to try one more letter. then if I didn't hear from you I would wire someone who would answer it for me.
Every since I rec. Hattie's letter telling me I must not come to Miami, I have had a dread that if you ever got sick enough that you couldn't write (and I know you would indeed be bad off when you couldn't drop me a line) I knew I would never hear of your condition through the girls. Hence my uneasiness at the present time. If you are well enough Mother please drop me a card or something. If not tell someone you can depend upon to wire me and I will start for Miami at once. The weather is somewhat settled now & the truckers are harvesting their crop of cabbage. prices are high (cabbage selling at the RR for $3.00 per hundred stawberries $2.65 to $3.25 per crate. I am just getting ready to open a place like I had at Titusville Fla. I have to build a shelter and hope to be running by next Saturday. its something entirely new here & I can't tell just how its going to pan out. Health fairly good. Write soon. Your anxious and Loving son Van Theodore Ala. May 14, 1912 Dear Mother Pardon me for not answering your nice letter sooner but I have been one of the busyest men in this county. Building my shed or shack or whatever one would call my little store, getting stock, looking up credit & a thousand other things besides being sick three days caused by poison. For nearly a year I have been taking one 1/30 gr. of strychnine every night at bed time. but a day or two ago I became billious and the Dr. gave me some small tablets I think of calomele. However I closed up Thursday night at 10 o'clock & went home tired out but I hapened to think of the doctors tablets so I picked up the box and poured out 5 tablets and took them & went to bed. at 2 a.m. the circus began. Friday I was as blind as a bat. My mouth as dry as gun powder & as wild as a mad dog. They called the Saw Bones & he gave me something that putt me on my feet all OK "but not untill Sunday Evening" "No more for Willie" My Business is very encouraging. The Supt. of the devission of the L & N R.R. has given me the first & only permitt ever issued for the privilage of errecting a refreshment stand on this road. Showing I am rather popular with Mr. Marshall anyway. Well its train time & must close. Oceans of love. Van Theodore Ala May 22, 1912 Dear Mother I hve tried since Sunday to get a chance to drop you a line & this is but half of one. I open up at 7 a.m. & close at 10:30 p.m. with sales amounting to about 8 or 10 dollars think what that means in 5 cent trade. if a man waited on as many customers in a shoe store in a day as I do he would do $500.00 per day or more. Even now thy are wraping for me to come. will write soon & send you a picture of the place.
Lots of Love. Van
Theodore Ala June 5 ,1912 Dear Mother Your card of last week was rec. on Saturday my busy day but with going to Mobile on business Monday and suffering so with my back yesterday I have not had an opertunity of writing untill now. One thing I have learned in the last day or two if I should be taken sick so that I would have to go to bed my business would go to pieces in little or no time. It seems that it is just as impossible to get anyone here who I can trust as its imposible to live under water. I tried our preacher's son. He eat the profits on 3 Gals. of cream the first morning he worked & in the afternoon cleaned up the profits on a case of CocoCola. & still his apetite for "sweets" as he calls it has never been cultivated. I would hate to see what he could do if that apetite was well fertilized and eregated. Mrs. Gollotte came to the stand while I was sick to (just look after things a little). That night one of her children had cholera morbis. I asked him if he had drank any soda water. He said "a little me & Ed had only four bottles apiece while ma & Sadie had five". I told him that small amount couldn't hurt him much, especialy when he had taken nearly an hour to drink it. On being asked if he had eaten any cream he said "not much It was too cold.He had only got two dishes but Ma eat five". Such is life in Theodore. Lovingly Van The following New Year found him once again in Freeport, Florida, near DeFuniak Springs. It was during that year that he met Grandma Isabel who was living about forty miles away at Holt. By now, we can see from the letters that he moved from town to town as he was given painting contracts. Occasionally he added another small business to his work. Holt at this time - 1913 - was a small but thriving railroad town. This is the last of his letters to his mother before he married Grandma. (There were certainly more letters, but these are the ones the archaeologist was able to save). He is sending New Year's greetings to her. Freeport, Florida New Year's 2013 Office of F. D. Raborn, M. D. Freeport, Fla Dear Mother Should those wounderfull elvs that dispense Aladians lights befriend me, it would be nothing like the enclosed. I would send you ships after ships loaded with the best and richest of gifts. would drop anchor in Biscan bay untill they would crowd its roomy anchorage. Besides I would rub the lamp and putt myself back forty years retaining of course my experiances. May this year be Our year Mother Dear. May the Giver of all good things smile upon us and answer our prayers and when 1913 fades away may we feel lke it has surley treated us kindly. With oceans of love. I am as ever Your Affectionate son Van December 1913: DeFuniak Springs, FL The year 1913 surely did treat Van Carpenter kindly, for in December he married Grandma Bell and they began their few short years together. At last, he had love, companionship, children and joy in his life. The Giver of all good things did indeed smile upon him, and I'm convinced that his mother must have, as well. By 1915: Perry, Florida Before 1915, Van and Isabel moved to Perry, Florida, where he opened another sign painting shop. Our father, Stephen was born in 1915 and his brother Raymond in1916. Return to the previous chapter for much more information about this period. Perry, July 17, 1917 He wrote his mother the beautiful and loving letter that I included in the previous chapter, page 13, describing life with his little sons and loving wife. Sept 3, 1917: He died and was buried in Perry, Florida. Barbara's note: What did our grandfather do those 20 years before he arrived in Florida? I think this account fairly well tells us. I do believe that he tried to stop drinking, perhaps more than once! He married Grandma Belle in 2013 and attempted to be doing right. He seemed to have had a life-long addiction to laudanum and alcohol and was dependent on other harmful drugs such as calomel and strychnine. He was ill most of the time. My grandmother's letter back home told he died of dropsy of the lungs, apparently brought on by malaria. I also learned from these various accounts that my grandfather was an extremely intelligent, clever and inventive man. His pictures always show him to be well dressed, like the "gentleman" he professed to be. Like so many alcoholics, his good intentions were often derailed by addiction. Recalling now that my siblings, I and one cousin are the last of our great-grandparents' descendants to carry the family name Carpenter, we can bear to repeat this poem and apply it to our grandfather, Van R. Carpenter: "Never destroy any aspect of personality, for what you think is the wild branch may be the heart of the tree."

CEMETERY:
Elmhurst Cemetery
Also known as German Lutheran Cemetery , Orchard Street Cemetery
Saint Paul, Ramsey County, Minnesota, USA
Elmhurst Cemetery is located on the southeast corner of Larpenteur Avenue W and Dale Street N; the entrance to the cemetery is on Dale Street. Burial information can be obtained using the cemetery website, which includes a searchable database of burial listings along with an interactive cemetery map.
The cemetery was established in 1858 through a cooperative arrangement between Trinity Lutheran and St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Churches. It includes former German Lutheran Cemetery, also known as Orchard Street Cemetery, which was also owned by Trinity Lutheran Church. Early burial records were destroyed by a fire in 1890. That same year, the cemetery name was officially changed to Elmhurst - named for the 760 elm trees that once stood within the cemetery.

Subject: My Brother Coles

My brother Coles has just recently been diagnosed with stomach cancer.
He will need chemo and radiation therapy as well as radial surgery.
Survival rate from this is low according to some medical journals.
Any and all prayers would be appreciated.
I ask God, for him not to be spared but to have peace and comfort & not suffer.God has his reasons for taking loved ones from us it's just not always clear to us.

Hi Uncle John,
Dad is not doing well. He is slowing fadeing away. Cant email, answer IMs, or phone calls right now. Says he cant hear- but we are thinking that he just cant process anything. I havent seen a smile in weeks. He sleeps a lot or just sits. He is still at the Manor, however I am thinking that he may need more care in the next few weeks.
He had an EEG last week- after we saw a nerologist -we should get some answers, however they believe that there was some brain damage from the last chemo.
The kids have went to visit- Jason is going tomorrow with me. Kev and I are trying to decided when would be the best time to move into the VA nursing home as Dad is not taking his cans (his feeding tube fell out) and he told the dr he would drink the cans. He is hardly eating.
If you need to do a day visit in the next few weeks- just tell me the day as we have many appointments. He is scheduled for chemo (to help with pain) on Tuesday that I will go to but I do not think that he will have chemo as he is not doing so well.
I will keep you posted~ We have been pretty busy with getting his appartment cleaned and cleared before the Dec 1 and trying to get through paper work...and still trying to visit and go to appointments. Last Friday we had 7 appointments in one day.
I am going to start making arrangements as I know it will be difficult when the time comes. Not saying he has only days or weeks....but I can see a big change in him fast. I am also looking to get him a uniform as he would like to be laid to rest in Saratoga.

Loving mother, wife, and grandmother. Married to Leo E. Carpenter in 1947. She was the daughter of Cecil and Julia Kellogg. COMMENT:
It is assumed that Emory and Woodward Township Cemteries are the same, One just being an older name. The marker for Jessie B. (in WTC) is a small fragment and free standing stone. This means it is NOT anchored to the ground and may be more of a memorial marker.

CHAPTER LII.
BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES.
BOROUGH OF JERSEY SHORE, AND PORTER, WATSON, MIFFLIN (INCLUDING SALLADASBURG), AND PIATT TOWNSHIPS.

JESSE B. CARPENTER, second son of John and Mary Carpenter, was born October 10, 1813, in Woodward township, Lycoming county. He was reared upon the old homestead, and received such an education as the common schools of that period afforded. After he grew to manhood he and his brother secured the patent for the tract entered by his grandfather, a portion of which is still owned by members of the family. In 1866 he purchased his present home of 125 acres in Piatt township, where he has since resided. Mr. Carpenter was married May 20, 1847, to Phebe Ann, daughter of Joseph and Hannah Carpenter of Eldred township. Four children are the fruits of this union: Joseph R.; William B., deceased; John W., and Asher M. Mr. Carpenter is one of the leading farmers of his township, and is a trustee and steward of the Methodist Episcopal church of his neighborhood. Throughout his life-long residence in Lycoming county he has been recognized as an industrious and honorable citizen, a man whose character is above reproach, and whose success has been attained by a conscientious performance of duty. He is a kind and charit-able neighbor, and ever ready to help the needy and afflicted. Politically, he has always been a stanch Democrat, and is also a firm advocate of the temperance cause. Both he and wife are now spending their declining years in the mutual love and respect of home and family, and in the enjoyment of the comforts which their industrious and economical habits have won.

Subject: Re: Carpenter Cousins Y-DNA Project - 340506 MtFull only
Hi,
My Carpenter family line starts with my Grandmother... Alice Carpenter Hopkins.
My GGfather was Clarence M Carpenter (1859-1907) Otsego County, NY
My GGGfather was Ervin or Irvin Carpenter (1830-1892) Otwego County, NY
My GGGGfather was Daniel G Carpenter (1805-1885) born in Rhode Island and died in Otsego Co, New York.
I am stuck proving anything before that. Most are in a cemetary near Fly Creek, New York.
My father Harold Solon Hopkins was an only child. My GGmother was Mary Hubbell Carpenter (1854-1942) I have proven the Hubbell family back Richard Hubbell of England and most of my DNA points to England.
Any assistance would be appreciated,
Barbara Toan Hopkins McGillivary

The Carpenter Story, Generation I Stephen and Carrie Lee Walther Carpenter

If our great-uncle Ezra Kelly had not moved to the Coldwater community north of Milton, Florida, my brothers, sister and I may never have existed.

Uncle Ezra had grown up at Holt, Florida along with our grandmother, Isabel Kelly Carpenter Canfield, his older sister. (The Kelly family story will be told in another book.) Grandma Isabel married Van Carpenter and moved away from Holt, eventually living at Perry, Florida where my father, Stephen, and his brother, Raymond, were born.

Grandpa Van died soon after the birth of their second son, Raymond. Grandma returned home, and then lived with her sister and her family who had settled in southeast Alabama.

On December 21, 1923, Grandma Isabel married Henry Horace Canfield, a widower with other children. He was a native of Moss Point, Mississippi, but was working in Alabama at the time they met. They moved permanently to the Moss Point area, where his family already had deep roots.

In the years following the move to Mississippi, Daddy and his brother Raymond welcomed two new sisters - our Aunts Eloise and Vivian.

Growing up in the Escatawpa, Mississippi community, it was our Daddy's destiny to attend school there (or at least pass through the doors) from 1923 to 1933. Highly intelligent though he was, diligent student he was not. Reports would come home to Grandma many days that he wasn't in school. She knew she had sent him off to school each of those mornings, but apparently he spent his days playing the truant. Finally, at the end of the ninth grade, he ended his misery and dropped out of school.

A few years later, he returned to Florida to live off and on with his Kelly uncles and cousins. His cousin, Velma Kelly Stricklin, told he that she remembered him during that time for the crisp white pants he preferred to wear. He finally settled in the small town of Niceville where he lived and worked with his cousin, Carey Kelly, who owned a sawmill there.

Carey had bought the sawmill from the Spence family after they had gone bankrupt with it. The Spences went on to open the most successful fresh seafod market Niceville has ever known. Daddy was a fisherman, and he especially liked the mullet that were abundant in the bayous around Niceville. He wrote of catching 47 mullet one afternoon, and bringing home a bucket of oysters he caught "across the bay" another time. He would recall the good taste of the fish caught there long after he returned to Mississippi, and would hold it up as the standard for judging the quality of fish he caught in Mississippi waters. Mississippi fish never measured up to the Florida fish.

Meanwhile, Uncle Ezra, working on the railroad out of Holt, married one of the local school teachers, Bertha Willis, who was from the Coldwater community. Before 1930, Ezra and Bertha moved to Coldwater and became near neighbors to Will and Nancy Walther, our other grandparents.

Never having had children of their own, Ezra and Bertha seemed to have taken in stray Kelly nieces and nephews. Stephen was one of those strays. He became a frequent visitor to his Uncle Ezra Kelly's farm. Those trips became even more frequent when he met the oldest child of the Walther neighbors - Carrie Lee Walther. Her family's story was told in my Walther/Fuqua book.

Daddy and the Walther boys spent lots of time together. Uncle Gordon told me that Daddy even got him into trouble one night. It was watermelon season, and the melons were ripening in the field. One moonlit night, Daddy, Gordon and some of the other Walthers were out late. Passing Ezra Kelly's melon field, Daddy suggested they snitch one of his uncle's melons. While enjoying the fruit of their crime under the moonlight, they suddenly heard a voice from out of the quiet darkness, "Is it good, boys?" Uncle Ezra had caught them red-handed.

Friendship turned into love, and Stephen and Carrie Lee decided to marry. Although Niceville was only fifty miles away, courtship and making wedding arrangements proved difficult. There were no phones and Stephen had no vehicle. He borrowed his cousin's car when possible, or made other arrangements. He would occasionally "go with the lumber truck" to Pensacola and then make a quick trip to the Walther farm north of Milton. I would think that was the truck from his cousin's mill, delivering the finished lumber to the market.

In a letter he wrote Mamma just three months before they married, Daddy said, "I don't know when I will get to see you again. I guess it will be about a month for the tires are getting bad on Carey's old car and you know what that means." 8

Transportation was not Daddy's only problem. Grandpa Walther apparently did not approve of him or consider him a suitable match for Mamma. She spoke of that in a letter in December, just before their wedding, when she mentioned that Grandpa was still against their marrying. Daddy had been aware of his feelings. He had written earlier, "I don't think hard of him at all for I guess he would hate to see you leave even with the best guy in the world." They had an ally, though, in Grandma Walther. Daddy spoke of her, " I am glad your mother feels the way she does about it for she can understand. I am glad we have got someone to sympathize with us."

Daddy took the initiative in buying the furniture for their new home. In October, he wrote, "I wanted to go to see Mr. Floyd Willis about getting some furniture. I think I will be able to get it from him cheaper than I can anywhere else. I want you to tell me about what we will need to start off with for I might not get what you wanted."

Mamma responded in a letter in early November, "I get kidded sometimes about you. Especially about you buying some furniture last Saturday. I don't mind it so terribly much though. Maybe no one kids you. I know you can take it better than I for I never did know how to be teased for it gets off with me."

Six weeks before their Christmas wedding, Mamma wrote, "Did you know that Christmas will not be always coming? Stephen, let's go into life together with the determination to always love and treat each other as we want to be treated. I know if we fail to be true to each other we can't be happy. To me, happiness is the most important thing in life."

On Christmas Day, 1936, the two were married by the elder of the Coldwater RLDS church, Mr. C. J. Clark. Years later, his wife gave me my first piano lessons.

The country was coming out of a depression in 1936, and money was hard to find. In order to get gas money, they sold some of Grandma's eggs. Before the wedding, she made a list of items that she needed for beginning housekeeping. I think that the cost of those items is worth noting:
broom - $.40
bowl - .35 towels - .50
irons - 1.60
glasses - .25
table cloth - .75
boiler - .40
plates - .60
washtub - 1.00
pan - .25
knives - .25
lamp - .75
dishpan - .50
butcher knife - .25
sifter - .20
frying pan - .50
forks - .25
water bucket - .50
baker - .20
spoons - .25
dipper - .15
kettle - .50

Carrie Lee moved to Niceville with Stephen and they lived in his cousin Carey's house. I was born the following October at Crestview, about fifteen miles north of Niceville and ten miles from where my grandmother Isabel was born. One of Daddy's many Kelly cousins and a nurse, Ethel, nursed me through my first night of life. Mamma gave her credit for keeping me alive, because I was having breathing problems throughout the night. Mamma never forgot the long ride she had to endure on a rough unpaved road to reach the hospital before I was born, even after Alzheimer's robbed her of much of her memory. I'm not so sure she ever forgave me for putting her through all that!

By the following June, 1938, Daddy returned with his new family to live near his mother in Escatawpa, Mississippi, where the remainder of their children were born. His first job back in Mississippi was with a lumber company in Moss Point.

Van was born at home in Escatawpa in 1939. (His birth at home was not in the plans, but the bridge across Escatawpa River would not close that night. I'll bet Mamma really never forgave him for that, either). It was nighttime and dark, so the doctor had Daddy hold the kerosene lamp near him while he delivered the baby. Just as he was his busiest, the lights went out. Daddy had fainted and had dropped the lamp. Aunt Eloise was present for Van's birth.

The late summer of 1939 found Daddy without a job, and Mamma having gone home for an extended visit with her parents. The delight she felt in motherhood reflected in this letter she wrote to Daddy in September: "The babies are doing wonderful. Barbara Jean is such a monkey. I told her Daddy said hello'. She shook her head up and down and said 'hey' and said 'way up'. That is what she says when we ask her where you are and point towards the sky. Emma tells her she will never find you there. She is in the yard talking to her kitty. I wish you could hear her mumbling (trying to talk). It all sounds like Hitler's many speeches. Van is a man now. He is six months old. He has one tooth. He can sit alone and crawl. Mostly when he sees trash he rolls to it no matter how far away. He can really do some rolling too. Hair pulling he loves. I wish he could get yours. My nose is sore as usual and he pulls it. That is how he wakes me about daybreak every morning regular, no matter how sleepy I am. He mocks the cat and makes a noise all the time and is never still. He smiles all the time. Lots of people say he is pretty. Barbara Jean is as brown as she can be but he is white as ever. His hair is still reddish. Barbara Jean has plenty now only it is not long."

Sandra was born in 1940 at the Jackson County Hospital in Pascagoula, Mississippi. I was not quite three at the time. With a little brother between us, I was not overly impressed by the new baby. I do remember my first visit to see her in the hospital. Actually, all I remember is being set down on the floor, leaning against the wall, and staring at the gigantic bed that Mamma was resting on.

Before Sandra was born, the family moved to East Moss Point. At the time of her birth, we were living in a house with a Mrs. Yawn. Soon, we moved into what was called "Porterville". In modern parlance, it would be called low-rent housing. Very low it was - for we had no indoor plumbing, no running water, no bathroom and no electricity. The families shared a common water pump in the middle of the project and community toilets on the edge. There was no icebox, but Mamma had made a hole under the house, lined it with tar paper and packed ice in that for cooling foods.

It was also during the "Porterville" days, 1943, that Daddy first began working at Ingalls Shipbuilding, a job which would cover most of his working years.

I also began school while living there, but we soon moved a block away into what seemed then to be a big house. It was a strange and unsettling feeling for me as a first-grader to arrive home one day, only to discover my parents had moved down the street a block.

Johnny was born in 1944 at the same hospital as Sandra. Daddy was gone away serving in the war, and the three of us were taken over to Grandma Canfield's house to stay while Mamma was in the hospital.

Daddy was inducted into the Navy March 15,1944. He spent most of his time in Scotland and Germany, although he was in England, France and Belgium for a short while. He spent about seven months of that time on a switch board operation at a power plant in Scotland, and two months at plant work in Germany. He was honorably discharged November 7, 1945.

While he was away, Mamma and the children moved back to Florida to live with Grandma and Grandpa Walther. I attended second and part of third grade at Allentown School. It was a fun experience to ride the same school bus as the high school students. The nearest I ever came to receiving a serious punishment at school was the day I jumped off the landing behind the cafeteria. Our teacher had told us to stay away from the landing. Somehow, I forgot. One of my classmates told on me and the teacher sent another to get a switch off the peach tree. As she was approaching me down the aisle with switch in hand, I began crying. Obviously a soft-hearted woman, she didn't use the switch but reminded me never to do it again. Soon, the girl who told on me played on the landing. This time, I told on her. The teacher had no mercy on her.

Daddy's only brother, Raymond, had enlisted with the CBs. In September of1944, while standing sentry duty on an island in the Pacific, he was shot by a Japanese sniper and he later died from the wounds. He received the Purple Heart and his name appears on the Tablets of the Missing at the Honolulu Memorial in Honolulu, Hawaii. (The "Missing" included those buried at sea or missing in action).

Raymond's daughter, Dorothy, just three months old, had been born in June after he went into service, and he never had the joy of seeing her.

Following the war, Stephen and Carrie Lee returned to Mississippi, to the same house in East Moss Point. Mamma had saved enough money during the war to buy a lot and begin building a house of her own, which had long been her dream. They soon began the house, and Daddy did a great portion of the work. It was the house in which we Carpenter children grew up. That house remained her home the rest of her life. As humble as it was, she loved it and was proud of it.

Stephen, who despised school as a child, educated himself as an adult. He had begun some electrical courses before he entered the Navy. Once he returned from serving in World War II, he took correspondence courses and taught himself to be a very excellent ship's electrician.

He spent most of his adult life working in shipbuilding. After moving to Mississippi, every job he ever held involved ships or boats, either at the shipyard, in the Navy, on board a dredgeboat or in a local barge yard. He helped to wire the first nuclear submarine produced by our country. We've been told that he installed the first radar unit ever placed on a private yacht - that of Mr. Ingalls who started the shipyard. He was a foreman for the electrical work on the last passenger/cruise ship built at Pascagoula. Van and Jo Ann later enjoyed a cruise on board that same ship.

Mamma became very active in the East Moss Point Baptist Church and each of us began attending church faithfully at an early age. She taught the "Beginners" Sunday School class for about 45 years, loving every minute of it.

I found a scrap of paper on which she had written out her Christian testimony. This is what she wrote:

"I had known Jesus from a baby when Mama told me about Jesus from day to day. When I was 15 I knew it was time to publically accept Jesus and Oh! How great it was. There has been blessings untold to me... and never 'no turning back'."

Alcohol played a controlling role in Daddy's life. Most of the difficulties he and Mamma ever had related to alcohol. Eventually, it led to their divorce. Daddy remarried but Mamma did not. The second wife died after a few years, and my parents then remarried. She jotted down another note that said, "We later remarried and had a good life together before he passed away. Of course it was not perfect".

Daddy did make a profession of faith, and attended church somewhat in his last years.

Daddy's second vice, cigarettes, brought on emphyzema which led to his early death to chronic asthma in 1966.

Mamma then married W. O. Carpenter, a fellow church member and neighbor. With him she enjoyed ten years of a truly Christian marriage. He was a deacon in the church and very active. Together, they visited the sick in the hospitals, taking Sunday's church flowers to them. Mr. Oren died in 1985.

Mamma remained physically a healthy person, happily working in her garden even until the 85th summer of her life. However, Alzheimer's disease finally took its toll, and she died in the year 2000, at the age of 88. Daddy and Mamma are both buried in the Griffin Street Cemetery in Moss Point, Mississippi.

Yes, this is the same family! I welcome an exchange of information with you. Here are my own notes compiled primarialy from family records.

PHILIP1 STEVENS was born July 24, 1789 in Dantown, CT, and died December 13, 1876 in Auburn, Cayuga County, NY. He married WELTHA BROOKER SMITH February 1814, daughter of ELIJAH SMITH and MARY. She was born September 17, 1798 in Cairo, Greene County, NY, and died January 25, 1886 in Auburn, Cayuga County, NY.

Notes for PHILIP STEVENS:
The Stevens family moved in next door to William T. Mosher and his family in Poplar Ridge, Ledyard in 1854. Philip was listed as a farmer in the New York State Cenus of 1855. He had twenty acres of improved land valued at $1,600. Twelve of those acres were plowed. This family is not shown adjacent to the Mosher family in the census of 1860.

Burial Fort Hill Cemetery, Auburn, NY: Stevens, Philip d. 12 13 1876 Auburn,N.Y. South Slope Greenwood 30 Auburn,N.Y.

Stephens, Philip NY CAYUGA CO. LEDYARD 312 1860

The New Canaan, CT Historical Society published a family tree of the Stevens name that was compiled by Vera G. Halstead in 1946. This information was found on a messageboard, but has not been followed-up.

Notes for WELTHA BROOKER SMITH:
According to the Stevens Notebook, "Weltha B. married when she was 15 yrs. 5 mo. 5 da.
11 da schooling A very capable woman Could spin, weave cloth and carpet. Do basket work, hair flowers for wreaths, log cabin quilts, knitting, care for a family of 12 children."

Burial Fort Hill Cemetery, Auburn, NY: Stevens Weltha 01 25 1886 Auburn,N.Y. South Slope Greenwood 30 7 Auburn,N.Y.

Children of PHILIP STEVENS and WELTHA SMITH are:

ii. MARIAM STEVENS, b. May 1817, Greene County, NY; d. April 1843, Aurora, Cayuga County, NY.

Notes for MARIAM STEVENS:
Mariam is buried at Belltown Cemetery according to the Stevens Family Tree. BELLETOWN CEMETERY is located in the Town of Genoa, and is found on http://www.rootsweb.com/~nycayuga/cem/cem72.htm. However, she does not appear to be listed under that name, with that date of birth or death. She could be the wife of Rev. James Fuller, but the month and day of birth are incorrect. Or perhaps Mary Ann the wife of James McRavy (apparently that stone was not to legible.)

3. iii. PHEBE H. STEVENS, b. December 12, 1819, Delaware County, NY; d. January 01, 1862, Cayuga County, NY.
4. iv. MARGARET A. STEVENS, b. March 1822, Delaware County, NY; d. 1900, Sheldrake ?.

2. MARIETTE2 STEVENS (PHILIP1) was born January 1815 in Tompkins County, NY, and died Unknown. She married (2) THOMAS PECKHAM 1856. He was born Unknown, and died Unknown.

Notes for MARIETTE STEVENS:
Marriette was listed in the New York State Census of 1855 as a Milliner. At that time she was living with her father's family in Poplar Ridge, Ledyard. She was 40 years old. Son Charles E. Stevens, 13, was also part of the family.

Child of MARIETTE STEVENS is:
12. i. CHARLES3 STEVENS, b. 1841; d. Unknown.

Child of MARIETTE STEVENS and THOMAS PECKHAM is:
13. ii. JAMES3 PECKHAM, b. April 01, 1857; d. Unknown.

3. PHEBE H.2 STEVENS (PHILIP1) was born December 12, 1819 in Delaware County, NY, and died January 01, 1862 in Cayuga County, NY. She married ISAAC CARPENTER September 11, 1843, son of ISRAEL CARPENTER and PHEBE DOTY. He was born July 08, 1809 in Clinton Hollow, Clinton, Dutchess County, NY, and died April 07, 1898 in Union Springs, Cayuga County, NY.

Notes for PHEBE H. STEVENS:
According to her gravestone inscription, she died at age 42 years, 19 days. The New Canaan Historical Society published a family tree of the Stevens family that was compiled by Vera G. Halstead in 1946. Perhaps that would help tracing this family.

Notes for ISAAC CARPENTER:
An unsigned note penned "Union Springs 4-2-1897" appears in the Family Bible of Mr. & Mrs. H. Mosher, "Children of Isreal Carpenter born near Clinton Hollow. Isaac Carpenter, Wm Carpenter, Mary Ann Carpenter, Geoge Carpenter. Fruits of the first marriage." It goes on to include children of his second marriage.

Clinton Hollow was one of six principal post-offices and villages in Clinton Town, Dutchess County. Agriculture was the chief business of the early settlers. There was plenty of timber, and the country abounded in clear springs and brooks. Although not listed separately today in the New York phone directory, Clinton Hollow Road near Clinton Corners may identify the area. Clinton Town was organized March 13, 1786. It was formed from Charlotte and Rinebeck Precincts. At the time of Isaac's birth, Clinton Town embraced territory much larger than present. Hyde Park and Pleasant Valley having been taken off in 1821.

Isaac's family was enumerated and listed next to the William T. Mosher family in the New York State Census of 1855, and also in the census of 1860. He was a resident of Ledyard for 26 years in 1855, or since about age 20. Isaac's occupation was listed as a farmer. He owned 115 acres of improved land and 30 acres of unimproved land. Although he only plowed 18 of those acres, his farm was valued at $5,800, plus stock and tools. Isaac's first wife was Phebe H. Stevens, daughter of Philip Stevens and Weltha Brooker Smith. His second wife was Francis H. York.

Oak Glen cemetery in the village of Aurora, Ledyard, Cayuga County, NY has the Carpenter family plot with a large obelisk memorial. Inscriptions on the monument are as follows:

2068. Thomas Francis Carpenter

The Hon. Francis Carpenter was the son of Comfort A. Carpenter, but not by his wife, Widow Elizabeth Smith. His father educated him and made him a legal heir by an Act of the Legislature, and he became a very prominent man in the state of ,RI.

Extracts taken from Reminiscences of the ,RI Bar written by Abraham Payne, Esq.: "On the 14th day of September, 1840, I entered the office of Gen. Thomas F. Carpenter as a student at law. I swept the office and made the fires and did all the errands now usually expected of an office boy. On entering the office, he came in and laying down his green satchel upon the table, greeted me with much dignity and courtesy, asking me to be seated. He commenced the conversation by explaining to me that a lawyer should make himself familiar with the Bible, and taking the book, he read some passages in confirmation of his advice. He said that it was his daily habit to read a chapter in the original Greek in his house every morning. He then proceeded to impress upon me the importance of treating everything that should pass in the office as strictly confidential, remarking that in his safe there were wills and conveyances, which, if known, would startle the community. He was of middle height and had a very large head. In his intercourse with clients, his students and brethren of the bar, he was always courteous, and when appearing before the courts he was a model of dignity and deference to the tribunal.

While I was in his office, he rarely looked into a law book and yet he was in one sense the best lawyer that I have ever known. In his early life he must have been a careful student of the common law. He attained a competent acquaintance with equity jurisprudence the practice of which was then recent in the court of ,RI. He never gave any bad advice. No person got into a foolish lawsuit who consulted General Carpenter. It was his custom to say to a client who was anxious to get his grievances into court, `No doubt but that you have a perfectly good case, but there are some technical difficulties in your way, and I think it is for your interest to make a settlement.' In this way he seldom lost a cause for which he appeared in court, and the reputation of success largely increased the number of his clients.

General Carpenter was a Democrat, and was several times a candidate for governor and member of Congress. The Whigs being at the time the strongest party he was consequently defeated, but not on the ground of honesty and ability to fill the offices acceptably.

His charges were always moderate, and to persons unable to pay even those charges, his services were frequently and cheerfully rendered. When he came to an argument, his manner of speaking was formal and precise. He indulged in neither wit nor humor and never made any exhibition of rhetoric; but he knew what to say to a ,RI jury and a ,RI court.

He stood well as a common lawyer and excelled in criminal cases.

Mr. Carpenter always spoke in the highest terms of the Carpenter family; he was much interested in the genealogical history and rendered assistance and encouragement to the compiler.2 SOUR S203

Sarah Lundy married Joseph Carpenter. Declarations of their intentions to marry were made before the Kingwood Monthly Meeting on 8 of 9 mo., and 13 of 10 mo., 1768. On 10 of 6 mo., 1773, Joseph Carpenter for himself and his wife and children requested from the Kingwood M. M. a certificate of membership to the Exeter Monthly Meeting in Pennsylvania. Hello All:
Page 354 of Ruttenber & Clark gives a partial description of the family of Leonard Carpenter of Newburgh NY. His father is given as "Benjamin Carpenter who was born in England in 1730" who came to L.I. initially, but resided at the end of his life in Marlborough in Ulster County NY. His wife is given as Jane Leonard, daughter of Silas Leonard, minister at Goshen. Two of Benjamin Carpenter's SIX children's names are given; Jacob and Leonard. Can you add to this outline?....
Who were this Benjamin Carpenter's parents in England? Did they really go FIRST to L.I.? Where on L.I.?
Who were the other four offspring of Benjamin & Jane?
Who were the offspring of Benjamin's son Jacob?
I'm confident that one our John's (NH and La Mesa) must have a file on these Carpenters. Maybe others, too. (Anyone here descended from these guys?)
Robin.

E-MAIL: I have my great grandmother's Carpenter family bible from New York. It lists my great grandmother Sarah Carpenter b. 31 jan. 1867 and her siblings brother Stephen and sisters mary Edith Evelyn. Their parents Robert Halleck Carpenter b. 1 July 1827 m. May 11 1853 nyc to Amy Thorne Griffen Dau. of Thomas T. Griffen and Mary Miller Amy b. Feb.18 1829. Robert 's parents are listed as Benjamin and Martha. He died 17, 12m, 1838 aged 63 1mo. 3d (Born Nov. 14, 1775?) Martha D.19 of 9mo. 1827 aged 46 4mo. 11d.(born may 8 1781?)A slip of paper in it lists a blacksmith bill of 17.06$ and on the reverse what appear to be death dates Martha in 1821 aged 46 James 1859aged 53 Joseph aged 36 in 1859 and Benjamin age 63 1838. Do any of these appear in your data base? They were all Quakers for many generations. The Sarah Carpenter listed 1st Married Henry Warrington Gillingham at Meeting in NYC in 1897.These Quakers lived in Westchester county and the Griffens in Orange and may have started out on Long Is before settling in 9 partners . If any of this is of interest to add to your data base I can send details. If you can connect them I would love the info as I can't get past Benj. and Martha. Thanks for the site. Subject: Re: Carpenter Bible

Dear John, Yes I am still at this address. My Robert Halleck Carpenter was not the son of Wright Carpenter but the child of Benjamin Carpenter and Martha Weeks. From the dates I have for them I was able to reconstruct the line thru various Quaker records. The only online record had Robert's birthdate off by 20 years as someone must have thought it impossible for Martha to have Henry and then no children for all those years and suddenly have Robert.I had always heard Robert had a much older brother who could not take over his care when his mother died shortly after his birth. His father died when he was young leaving the orphaned Robert to be brought up by aunts in Westchester Co. which his family had helped settle.
I was also told that the family was descended from the Kips of new Amsterdam. Martha Weeks grandmother was a Kip. Wright Carpenter appears to be a close cousin of my line whose child has the same name as my ancestor. The Carpenters seem to like Benjamin and Robert and Sarah as names and repeat them often! Thanks for keeping me posted on the Carpenter clan. Would you like a copy of what I have so far? Also, is La Mesa by San Diego? I was down there yesterday and thought I saw a road sign for La Mesa but am not really familiar with the area as I grew up here on the central coast in Santa Barbara County. My grandmother told me she had Carpenter cousins here in California as her aunt who married a Burr and moved to San Jose at the turn of the century. (Can one use that phrase now that the century has turned again?)Our family lost track of that San Jose bunch after they moved from New York. Thanks for all the info.

Emma

Per the then current Carpenter pattern, EMMA'S last name could have been "BIRD" but her son was buried in a MANLEY cemetery plot. NFD 1991.

8112. James Bird Carpenter

NOTE: #1083 in T. Carpenter book. Died age 11-5-3 per tombstone. Buried in the BURTON MANLEY plot.

Leroy Hale

LEROY died just prior to his March 1966 "100th" birthday.

8117. Glen Putnam

GLEN died at age 19.

5123. James Ward Onderdonk

JAMES lived at Eagle Harbor in 1886 as letters of that date indicate he was interested in retrieving a reputed CARPENTER family fortune in England; this old tale is not based upon fact and although many others joined an effort to obtain this fortune, no proof of its existance could be found.

Fannie Gould

Fannie was a daughter of JOHN GOULD.

8118. John G. Onderdonk

Middle name may be "GOULD".

5132. Josephine Cornilia Carpenter

Number 633-5 in the Timothy Carpenter book.
Buried in grave 6, Lot 2, block 73 of Section "N" of the Prairie Home Cemetery. Husband is buried in the same lot. The grave monument gives his death date as 1863 (probably in error). This date is in consonance with a separate record that Josephine was a widow at the age of 21-22, but is not in consonance with the birthdates of their children. NOTE: Information suggests that Josephine was married twice, and she was a widow when she married Frank Gibbs.

Josephine (Carpenter) Gibbs was residing in Spokane, WA, Aug. 8, 1908 when she, her sister Ida of Omaha, Neb., and brother Albert of Des Moines, IA conveyed lost 59, section 32 in Forest Hill Cemetery, Madison, WI. They also authorized removal of the remains of a Mrs. Carpenter from that plot to a single grave in Lot 93, section 23. Those remains probably were those of either their mother Emeline or their grandmother Annis, who resided at the time of her death with their father, Stephen, who had first purchased the conveyed plot.

BIRTH: The Vital Statistics Section in Spokane records Josephine's birth as in 1843, but no place is given. Cemetery records indicate birth Aug. 21, 1842 at Green Bay, WI. The compilier of the above record uses Aug. 19, 1842 date and Ashville, NY, as the place, going by what was recorded by her father.
The 1860 census lists her age as 16 (3rd Ward, Madison, WI).

Frank Sylvester Gibbs

Gravestone has death date of 1863. But this is not consistent with two children born after 1863 (1866 & 1868).
Frank probably was a brother or cousin to his wife's first husband. His name is not known. See wife's notes.

8122. Madeline Gibbs

Madeline had at least three children: 1) Madeline who married William Marshall, 2) Josephine who married a Carter, and 3) Virginia who married E. Miles Barrett.

5134. Albert Welk "Alb" Carpenter

Number 635-5 in the Timothy Carpenter book.
Buried in lot 155, block 16 of the Glendale cemetery.
Albert's death certificate has his year of birth as 1845; his father recorded it as 1846. He was publisher of "The Patriot" at Carthage, IL.
Funeral arrangements for Albert and Sarah were by Dunn Funeral Home of Des Moines, IA.

Sarah Elizabeth Durand

Buried in lot 155, block 16 of the Glendale cemetery.
One record has her as Sarah Eliza.

8125. William Dale Carpenter

Number 1088-6 in the Timothy Carpenter book.

5135. Ida Emiline Carpenter

Number 636-5 in the Timothy Carpenter book.
Ida and George had no issue. Ida was living in Omaha, Neb. in 1908 when she conveyed a plot in Forest Hill Cemetery. See sister's notes.
Ida is mentioned in the 1860 census of Madison, WI, which was taken 9 June 1860.
The NAILE name is recorded with various spellings. An old stock certificate transferred to the compiler of the above record by courtesy of Stephen Decatur Carpenter 2nd, a grandson of Stephen, spells it as herein recorded; the stock was being transferred from Stephen to his daughter Ida.

Charles Lorain Carpenter wilkinsburg, pennsylvania ' ' Chuck ' ' Kid Carp CHUCK came to us from Pitt. There he was a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity and a track man of no mean ability. It happened in the course of his track career that he once had occasion to visit the Naval Academy. Here for the first time in his life he saw mid- shipmen, blue-and-gold clad midshipmen; so fine, and so sportsmanlike were these midshipmen that Carp gave his Congressman no rest until he had been made one of them. Carp ' s biggest roles at the Academy were track, hops, and cold showers. Coincidently, in track events his competitors run with him; at hops, the drags run after him; and in his after-reveille showers, the cold water runs over him. So we adjudge him the Naval Academy ' s champion all-round runner. Socially, with his ready smile, he gets bv big. Physically, one need onlv ask to see his numerous medals. Mentally, he laughs at the Academic Department while his roommates bilge. And morally, he goes to Chapel every Sunday whether he has to or not. " Oh, say, Carpenter, have you heard the latest? " " No, what is it? " " Why, there is a track meet the Saturday before Easter. " " Well, I ' ll be darned. And I wanted to go home for Easter Leave. Memoirs of George Albert DeLong
(26th June 1922 - 22nd March 2002)
Perhaps the most vivid memory of the November 13 battle occurred at approximately 11.00 in the morning after the battle was over. Five of the six ships that survived the battle intact enough to steam under their own power had been collected by Helena's Captain Hoover to head back to Espiritu Santo. The ships were the San Francisco, Helena, Juneau, Fletcher and Sterett. The sixth ship, the O'Bannon, had been sent ahead to radio a message to Admiral Halsey.

On the Helena, Captain Hoover had secured the ship from General Quarters and set a condition that called for standing one four hour watch on duty and four hours off. My assignment was on the bridge in the pilot house as helmsman. While steering the ship I had the opportunity to glance out the port holes and I saw the condition of the San Francisco and the Juneau. I remember commenting to one of the men in the pilot house that the San Francisco look so beat up that she would be lucky to make it back to Espiritu Santo, but that the Juneau, while she was down by the bow, still looked seaworthy enough to make it back Shortly thereafter, however, Lt. Comdr. Carpenter, the ship's navigator, who seldom left the bridge, shouted, "Hard right rudder, DeLong." I spun the rudder over hard right and started singing out the course changes every ten degrees. I glanced out the port hole as the bow swung past the line of sight to the Juneau who had been on our starboard quarter in the formation. The ship was swinging at a rapid speed now and I had no idea what was going on.

Suddenly, Comdr. Carpenter hollered, "Hard left rudder." I reversed the rudder, but the momentum was still carrying the ship to the right. The ship shuddered for several seconds and slowly started to turn left when an immense explosion took place. I glanced out the port hole and all I could see was a huge cloud in the direction the Juneau had been.

By this time the Helena was making good time through the water again and picking up momentum heading straight for the cloud. The wheel was still turned hard left and I had no idea where either the Juneau or the San Francisco were. Total silence reigned in the pilot house and on the wings of the bridge.

Now it was my turn to shout! "Where is she? Where is she? Where is she? I don't want to ram her!" Everyone was out on the wing of the bridge except me and no one other than myself was talking.

Finally, one of the sailors stuck his head in the door and quietly said, "DeLong, she ain't nor more." I didn't fully understand what he meant but I decided to ease the rudder lest it bang against the stops and get stuck. I was a little late but in time enough to keep the rudder from jamming. There was a jolt as the rudder hit the stop, but it was light enough so there was no jamming.

The people that had gone outside now filled me in with what had happened. The Juneau didn't sink; she was blown up. Everyone had seen pieces of her flying through the sky. The largest piece was reported as one of her five inch gun mounts flying over the Helena.

Captain Hoover wisely decided to save all the ships he could and decided not to stop to look for survivors - no one though there would be any. Even if there were, the subs might still be around and more ships and men could be lost.

As a footnote to this event, many years later, I ran across Lt. Comd. Carpenter (by that time Admiral Carpenter) at a Helena reunion and he filled in some details that I hadn't known. We were seated across from each other at a dinner table. We were all telling sea stories and I started telling them my story - (I had forgotten that it was Commander Carpenter who had issued the orders to the wheel). Right in the middle of my story Carpenter looked at me and said, "And do you know who issued those orders?" When I admitted that I didn't remember, but wished that I could, he replies, "I did." The minute he said that, I remembered.

From that point on he took over the story. He told us that in the early part of his career he had taken special training on spotting and tracing torpedo wakes and that was one of the reasons he felt a little safer when he was on the bridge in treacherous waters. As a result of his early training he was the first one to see the wakes of the two torpedoes coming from the port side. Both torpedoes went between the Helena and the San Francisco and when both ships turned, the torpedoes went past us and one of them hit the Juneau. We were not able to warn the Juneau in time to save her.

Death: 28 Mar 2016 Houston, Harris County, Texas, USA
Burial: Marion Cemetery, Marion, Marion County, Kansas, USA
Memorial #: 178016230
Bio: She was born to William Randolph Carpenter and Helen Williams Carpenter in Marion, Kansas. Precious son, Laurence "Ward" Simmons, beloved husband, M. D. "Bud" Morris, M.D., sweet grandson, Ward William Cox, and both parents who she loved so dearly predeceased Jeanne. Left behind to cherish her memory: husband Andrew Johnson, children and their spouses, Tom and Madilyn, Julie and Allan, Nancy and Clay and Anne and Tim, as well as 11 grandchildren, Alison McGrath (John) Carson, C.B. (Kris) McGrath, Barbara Morris; Erin Plourde(Erik) Covington, Lindsey Plourde (Jason) Gianoukos; Callie, Casey and Claire Cox; Christopher, Curtis (Lauren) and Tim Cox Jr. Jeanne is also survived by 12 great grandchildren, J.T. and Tucker Carson; Kate, Addison and Hunter McGrath, Emma and Evan Covington: Sophia and Reid Gianoukos: Carlee Cox: Charlotte and Samantha Cox. She is also survived by her brother, William Randolph Carpenter (Joan Sehdev M.D.) as well as her niece Carolyn Carpenter (Michael) Frieschling and nephews Randolph (Julie) Carpenter and Charlie Carpenter. Jeanne had an idyllic childhood, growing up in Marion, graduating from Marion High School before attending Bradford College, Haverford, Mass. where she was first in her class. She completed her education with a degree in English at the University of Kansas where she was a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority and was awarded the University French Scholar Award. Despite her academic excellence as shown by her election to Phi Beta Kappa Society, her father sent her to Chicago to study at Katherine Gibbs Secretarial School to ensure her ability to be an independent and modern young woman. Jeanne always said she never again wanted to experience the cold she felt blowing off of Lake Michigan!Jeanne’s devotion and involvement in First United Methodist Church of Topeka spanned over a half a century. Her steadfast Christian faith was firm but gentle. Her lifetime of volunteerism in community organizations included being the first woman elected to the Board of Directors of Stormont Vail Hospital, Treasurer; Junior League of Topeka, Gold Rose Recipient; Western Sorosis, President; Mulvane Art Center, Docent; P.E.O., President; Topeka Medical Auxiliary, Meals On Wheels delivery driver for many years, Gamma Phi Beta House Corporation, Topeka Zoo, Topeka Round Up Club, Garden Club, and Kansas Historical Society. An endless scholar and seeker of knowledge, she continued to take every French class available at Washburn University. She was an avid Jayhawk basketball fan, being a season ticket holder for decades. In later years, she found the couch more comfortable than the bleachers and gathered with old friends to yell, cheer and scold the officials via T.V.Jeanne was a successful businesswoman, co-owning Morris-Simmons ladies shop for many years. She enjoyed gardening, reading, tennis and golf. Jeanne was into health and fitness long before it was cool. She loved to start her day with the 3-mile walk with her friends, the Knollwood Walkers. On Wednesdays, short of nuclear war, she could always be found at French Club. Jeanne was a tireless and energetic traveler whose curiosity took her around the globe - many times with her precious grandchildren, creating priceless memories. Jeanne was an accomplished horsewoman beginning as a young girl and taking her last ride at 78 years young. She shared this love of horses with her children and grandchildren. She welcomed foreign exchange students into her home for years and treated them as her own. Gracious, brilliant, beautiful, loving, patient, kind, thoughtful, humble and endlessly generous with her time, efforts and gifts, she will be in our hearts forever.
